(a) The salaries of the Joint Examiners for North and South Shields, Newcastle and Sunderland, are paid at and charged to North Shields, and thus make the expenditure of that port appear larger than it really is.

(b) The amount of remuneration payable for the year 1863 to the Officers of Customs who act as Superintendents of Mercantile Marine at the Minor Ports, and as Receivers of Wreck, for the additional duties imposed upon them, is not included in the above account, the payment not having been yet made.

27 dated May 1864;—for,

COPY “ of CORRESPONDENCE in 1864 between the FIRST COMMISSIONER of HER MAJESTY’S WORKS and the TRUSTEES of the NATIONAL GALLERY respecting PLANS for a NEW BUILDING.”

Sir,

Office of Works, &c., 13 February 1864.

I AM directed by the First Commissioner of Her Majesty’s Works, &c., to inform you that Messrs. Banks and Barry are preparing a plan for the erection of a new National Gallery in the Garden of Burlington House, and that the First Commissioner would be glad of an opportunity of submitting some probationary drawings of the proposed building, in about 10 days, for the opinion of the Trustees of the National Gallery.

Sir Chas. Eastlake, P. R. A.

I am, &c.
(signed) Alfred Austin,
Secretary.

Sir,

National Gallery, 15 March 1864.

I AM instructed by the Trustees and Director of the National Gallery to express their thanks for the opportunity afforded them of inspecting the plans prepared by Messrs. Banks and Barry for the proposed new building for the National Gallery, and am directed to forward to you the following copy of a Minute passed at the meeting of yesterday :—

Resolved—The proposed building seems to afford ample accommodation for pictures for the present and for some time to come, and to provide advantageously for their lighting, although subject to question in this respect as regards the smaller rooms.

According to the section east and west, the roofs of the small galleries are considerably lower than those of the larger contiguous galleries. Assuming this construction to be indispensable, it would be necessary that it should be regulated so as to ensure to those smaller galleries the utmost quantity of light that can be obtained.

With reference to accommodation, some suggestions present themselves. There does not appear to be an adequate provision of space at the Piccadilly entrance, for crowds coming and leaving, and for accommodation as to umbrellas, sticks, &c. Vast numbers of persons will be at times congregated there. The entrance lobby, as proposed, is only 10 feet wide. Might not more space be taken on either side for enlargement?

The central arrangement of the proposed great Italian Gallery, with its branches, seems adequate and fitting in all respects, excepting as to its communication with other rooms. The doors leading from it seem objectionable in position :

- 1st. They tend to cut up the principal and finest walls in the building.
- 2d. They are not favorably placed for supervision.

It would seem that these doors might all be closed and the communication otherwise arranged, as afterwards suggested.

The next consideration is the desirableness of the proposed arrangement of the four spaces allotted to cabinet pictures, which are sub-divided into four rooms, each 30 by 20 feet, with doors on the east and west sides.

These rooms appear to be ill-suited for the proper circulation of the great number of visitors who will frequent them, and the position of the side doors is not favourable to supervision. Moreover it tends to cut up some of the most valuable of the walls of those rooms, as well as of the grand central rooms.

These objections would be in a great measure obviated by making the openings into and through these smaller rooms in the north and south walls. It would be desirable also to omit the central divisions in these rooms, and by so doing an uninterrupted skylight would be secured in each of them; and although there will be by this change some sacrifice of wall space, it would be compensated to the extent of more than 100 feet, by reducing the number of doors from 24 to 16.

Certain changes might also be suggested as to the position of the rooms to be appropriated to the keeper's residence, and those required for the general purposes of the establishment.

I have, &c.

(signed) R. N. Wornum,

The Right Hon. William Cowper, M.P.

Keeper and Secretary.

Sir,

Office of Works, &c., 2 May 1864.

I AM directed by the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works, &c., in reply to your letter of 15th March, to request to express his acknowledgments to the Trustees and Director of the National Gallery, for the observations they have communicated to him respecting the proposed new building in the rear of Burlington House. He has instructed the architects to make such modifications in the plan as will be required to meet the views of the Trustees and Director.

He considers it important not to raise the ceilings of the small rooms to a greater height than is shown in the section, but any apprehension of a deficiency of light may be guarded against by extending the skylight over a larger proportion of the ceiling.

The suggestions of the Trustees and Director with reference to the Piccadilly entrance, and to the position of the doors of the small rooms, have been adopted, and the First Commissioner has directed Messrs. Banks and Barry to prepare another drawing of the ground plan, which will shortly be submitted to the Trustees and Director, and which it is hoped will meet with their unqualified approval.

I am, &c.

R. N. Wornum, Esq.

(signed) Alfred Austin, Secretary.

Sir,

National Gallery, 10 May 1864.

IN reply to your letter of the 2d instant, I am instructed to say that the revised plans for the new National Gallery have been under the consideration of the Trustees and Director, with the aid of some further explanations by the architects, and that the criticisms on some matters of detail which they ventured to offer, and which were communicated to you in my letter of the 15th of March, appear to have been satisfactorily met.

The Trustees and Director trust that the plans in the amended form now submitted to them, if carried into execution, will accomplish all the purposes of the proposed building. At the same time they express this opinion, under a full sense that the question involves many points upon which architects are the proper persons, rather than the Trustees of the National Gallery, to pronounce a judgment.

I am, &c.

(signed) R. N. Wornum,

Keeper and Secretary.

II.—RETURN of the Amount required for completing the same.

THE National Gallery is completed, and was opened to the public on the 1st day of February last; but the interior of that portion of the building originally intended to contain Archbishop Marsh's Library requires to be completed, as far as regards the plastering, staircase, and bookstalls, and for which no estimate has or can be made, until it has been decided to what purpose this part of the building shall be applied.

III.—STATING whether Captain Fowke has received, or is to receive, any Remuneration for his Services in connexion with the said Building, and, if so, to what Amount.

THE plans and specifications and the detailed drawings required for all the works connected with the Gallery and Library, as erected, were prepared at South Kensington, by Captain Fowke, R. E., in consequence of instructions from the Department of Science and Art, and no payments have been made by the Building Trustees for the services so successfully performed by him. But the cost incurred by draughtsmen, in preparing and copying the plans and working drawings at South Kensington, has been paid to the Secretary of the Department, the amount of which is given in the General Statement of Expenditure; and as regards the sum of 600 l. paid to Messrs. Lanyon, Lynn, & Co., I have to observe that the original designs were prepared by those gentlemen, and approved of by the Trustees; but, at the instance of the Department of Science and Art, Captain Fowke, R. E., was directed, in 1858, to inspect the site, and report to the Department his views, &c., subsequent to which he prepared plans which were adopted by the Trustees; and the building has been erected and paid for, by measurement, according to a schedule of prices attached to Messrs Cockburn and Sons' contract with the Building Trustees.

Dublin, 26 May 1864.

Richard Griffith,
Chairman of the Building Trustees of the National Gallery of Dublin.

F. P E E L.

TREASURY MINUTE, dated 12th November 1863, relating to PROOFS and CORRECTIONS in PUBLIC PAPERS sent to be PRINTED.

MY Lords advert to the frequent statements which have been addressed to them by the Comptroller of the Stationery Office, representing the unrevised and incomplete condition in which manuscripts are constantly sent to the printer from the various Governmental departments, Royal Commissioners, or individuals employed on the public service, the consequence of which is that an excessive number of proofs is required, and an unnecessary expenditure incurred, which the Comptroller estimates at not less than £15,000 a-year over and above the sum that should suffice, were manuscripts properly prepared, to defray this portion of the expenditure for printing.

It has been the duty of this Board on several occasions, during the last few years, to direct attention to various abuses connected with the printing of reports and papers at the public expense.

Regulations have been laid down for the purpose of limiting, as far as possible, the amount of printed matter to what is really indispensable, excluding all evidence and appendices not directly required for the due consideration of the subject.

The Comptroller of the Stationery Office has been instructed to limit the number of copies printed to what may appear, on a careful calculation, to be absolutely necessary; and further restrictions have been imposed upon the gratuitous distribution of printed papers.

Finally, an important reform has been introduced in the mode of printing evidence and appendices, by the substitution of small type and double columns for the more bulky and expensive method which was formerly in use.

My Lords have lost no opportunity of impressing on the heads of offices the necessity of strictly adhering to these regulations, and generally of observing as much economy as possible in all that concerns the printing within their respective departments; and they regret to find that, notwithstanding these efforts and the important savings now referred to, a great and entirely unnecessary waste continues to prevail in that department of public printing to which the Comptroller has lately drawn attention.

Two instances have been specially brought under the notice of their Lordships on the present occasion, as illustrations of the great inconvenience and expense resulting from carelessness in the preparation of manuscripts for the press.

In the one case several sheets of a first revise of one of the Calendars of State Papers are exhibited, the corrections and alterations upon which are so numerous that this single revise will cost, as my Lords are informed, more than the first setting up, with the probability of numerous subsequent revises.

In the other case no less than about twenty proofs have been issued of certain departmental regulations, entailing a cost amounting to several times the original cost of composition, and the work is not even now completed.

These frequent revises are necessitated only in a small degree by the errors of the press, being caused almost entirely by the crude and imperfect state in which the manuscripts reach the hands of the printers.

My Lords feel it imperative upon them to call the serious attention of the heads of departments, and of all persons who may be entitled to avail themselves of the Government printers, to the necessity of exercising greater care in the preparation of reports, tabular statements, calendars, and all other papers intended for the press.

With the object of saving to the public the wasteful expenditure referred to, their Lordships have framed the following Regulations, which they trust will meet with general observance, and which, if properly carried out, will no doubt impose an effectual check upon the lax system of which the Comptroller of Stationery complains.

It is to be understood as a general rule, that manuscripts shall not be sent to press until complete and ready for printing, and that proofs are only furnished with a view to the correction of errors of the press.

REGULATIONS.

- I. All manuscripts, whether ordinary or tabular, shall be carefully corrected before being sent to press, so that the charge for corrections may be limited to the charge for correcting mere errors of the press.
- II. Whenever practicable, all manuscripts shall be completed before any portion of them is sent to be printed.
- III. The Comptroller of Stationery may, whenever the corrections made on any paper sent to the printer appear to be unreasonably heavy, inquire into the matter, and, if needful, refer the case to this Board.

Transmit copy of this Minute to each of the principal Public Departments, and express the hope of their Lordships that they will use every endeavour to give effect to the views and regulations therein contained.

Transmit copy to the Comptroller of the Stationery Office for his information and guidance.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS (SOUTH KENSINGTON).

RETURN to an Order of the Honourable The House of Commons, dated 21 April 1864;—for.

COPIES “ of INSTRUCTIONS issued by the OFFICE of WORKS, in pursuance of which certain competing ARCHITECTS have prepared PLANS and DESIGNS for PUBLIC BUILDINGS proposed to be erected on Land recently purchased by the Government, and used in 1862 for the International Exhibition at South Kensington :”

“ And, of INSTRUCTIONS to the COMMITTEE of JUDGES nominated to award the PREMIUMS.”

— 1. —

NEW MUSEUM BUILDINGS.—SOUTH KENSINGTON.

Office of Works, 12, Whitehall-place, London,
January 1864.

THE Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works, &c., are prepared to receive from architects designs for public buildings to be erected on the land recently purchased by the Government, and used in 1862 for the International Exhibition at South Kensington. All the buildings now standing on this land, except those facing the Horticultural Gardens, and belonging either to the Government or to the Commissioners of the Exhibition of 1851, will be removed. The annexed plan shows the site coloured red, and the buildings on the north side, formerly used as refreshment rooms, and now belonging to the Government, which are to be incorporated with the intended buildings.

The buildings for which a design is required are to be placed on the eastern portion of the site coloured red, and are to provide accommodation for the collections of Natural History belonging to the British Museum, and for the models of inventions and machines belonging to the Commissioners of Patents.

The extent of floor space and wall space required for the Natural History Museum may be learned from the plans prepared in 1862 for another site, under the directions of Professor Owen, and printed by order of the House of Commons on the 23d of June 1863 (No. 390). The part thereon coloured yellow shows that the accommodation required for the exhibition of the collections may be afforded by galleries extending to a collective distance of 3,280 feet in length, with a breadth of about 40 feet, besides a lecture room and a library. In addition to what is marked upon this plan, 25 rooms, of about 25 feet by 18, will be wanted for the attendants in contiguity to the rooms containing the collections, and the basement will be used for stores, warming apparatus, &c. This plan is referred to for the purpose of showing the requirements of the Natural History Museum according to the view of Professor Owen, but without any intention of restricting the designs to a similar disposition of the required area, or to the forms and dimensions of the several galleries. The existing building on the northern side, formerly used as a refreshment room, and measuring about 360 feet by 20 feet, is to be used for the purposes of this Museum, and is to be approached through the new building.

The building to be appropriated for the Patent Museum must provide a superficial area of not less than 23,000 square feet, disposed on two floors. A residence must be provided for a Director of Police, who will be responsible for the custody of the buildings during the night and after office hours.

In designing the buildings for the accommodation above-mentioned, which will probably be erected at intervals of time, the architects are to have reference not only to the future extension of those buildings, but also to the ultimate appropriation of the whole site for buildings fitted for Museums, and for the exhibition of various objects of art and science, with courts, libraries, and halls, and architects are to show upon the annexed plan the manner in which they would propose to lay out the whole site in such buildings.

The plans, elevations, and sections of the buildings for the above-mentioned Museums on the eastern side of the site coloured red, are to be drawn to a scale of 20 feet to 1 inch, and competitors may send one elevation, or parts of an elevation, drawn to a scale of 8 feet to 1 inch; one perspective view, tinted with light brown Indian ink, may accompany the designs, but models, bird's-eye perspective views, and drawings in frames (other than straining frames) and glasses will not be received.

Fire-proof construction will be adopted throughout, and a general description of the materials proposed to be used for the exterior must accompany the designs.

The following premiums will be given for the most approved designs:

First premium - - - - -	400
Second premium - - - - -	250
Third premium - - - - -	100

Each competitor must submit designs for the two Museums, and a block plan embracing the whole site, and no premium will be awarded to any competitor unless this condition shall be complied with.

The Commissioners of Works do not engage to employ any of the architects submitting designs; but if the architect to whom a premium may be awarded in respect of his designs shall be employed to superintend the execution of the work, he will not be entitled to receive such premium, but he will be paid a commission, at the rate of 5 per cent., upon the outlay. Such commission to include all expenses for measuring, superintendence, &c., except the salaries to clerks of works.

The designs in respect of which premiums may be given are thereupon to become the property of the Government.

The designs are to be addressed to the First Commissioner of Works, and delivered (carriage free) at Her Majesty's Office of Works, 12, Whitehall-place, London, at or before 12 o'clock at noon on the 30th March 1864.

Every design sent in is to be inscribed with a motto; and an envelope, with the same motto on the outside, containing the name and address of the competitor, is to be sent to the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works, &c.

The Commissioners will not be answerable for any damage or accident that may happen to the drawings.

— 2. —

Office of Works, 12, Whitehall-place, London,

21 April 1864.

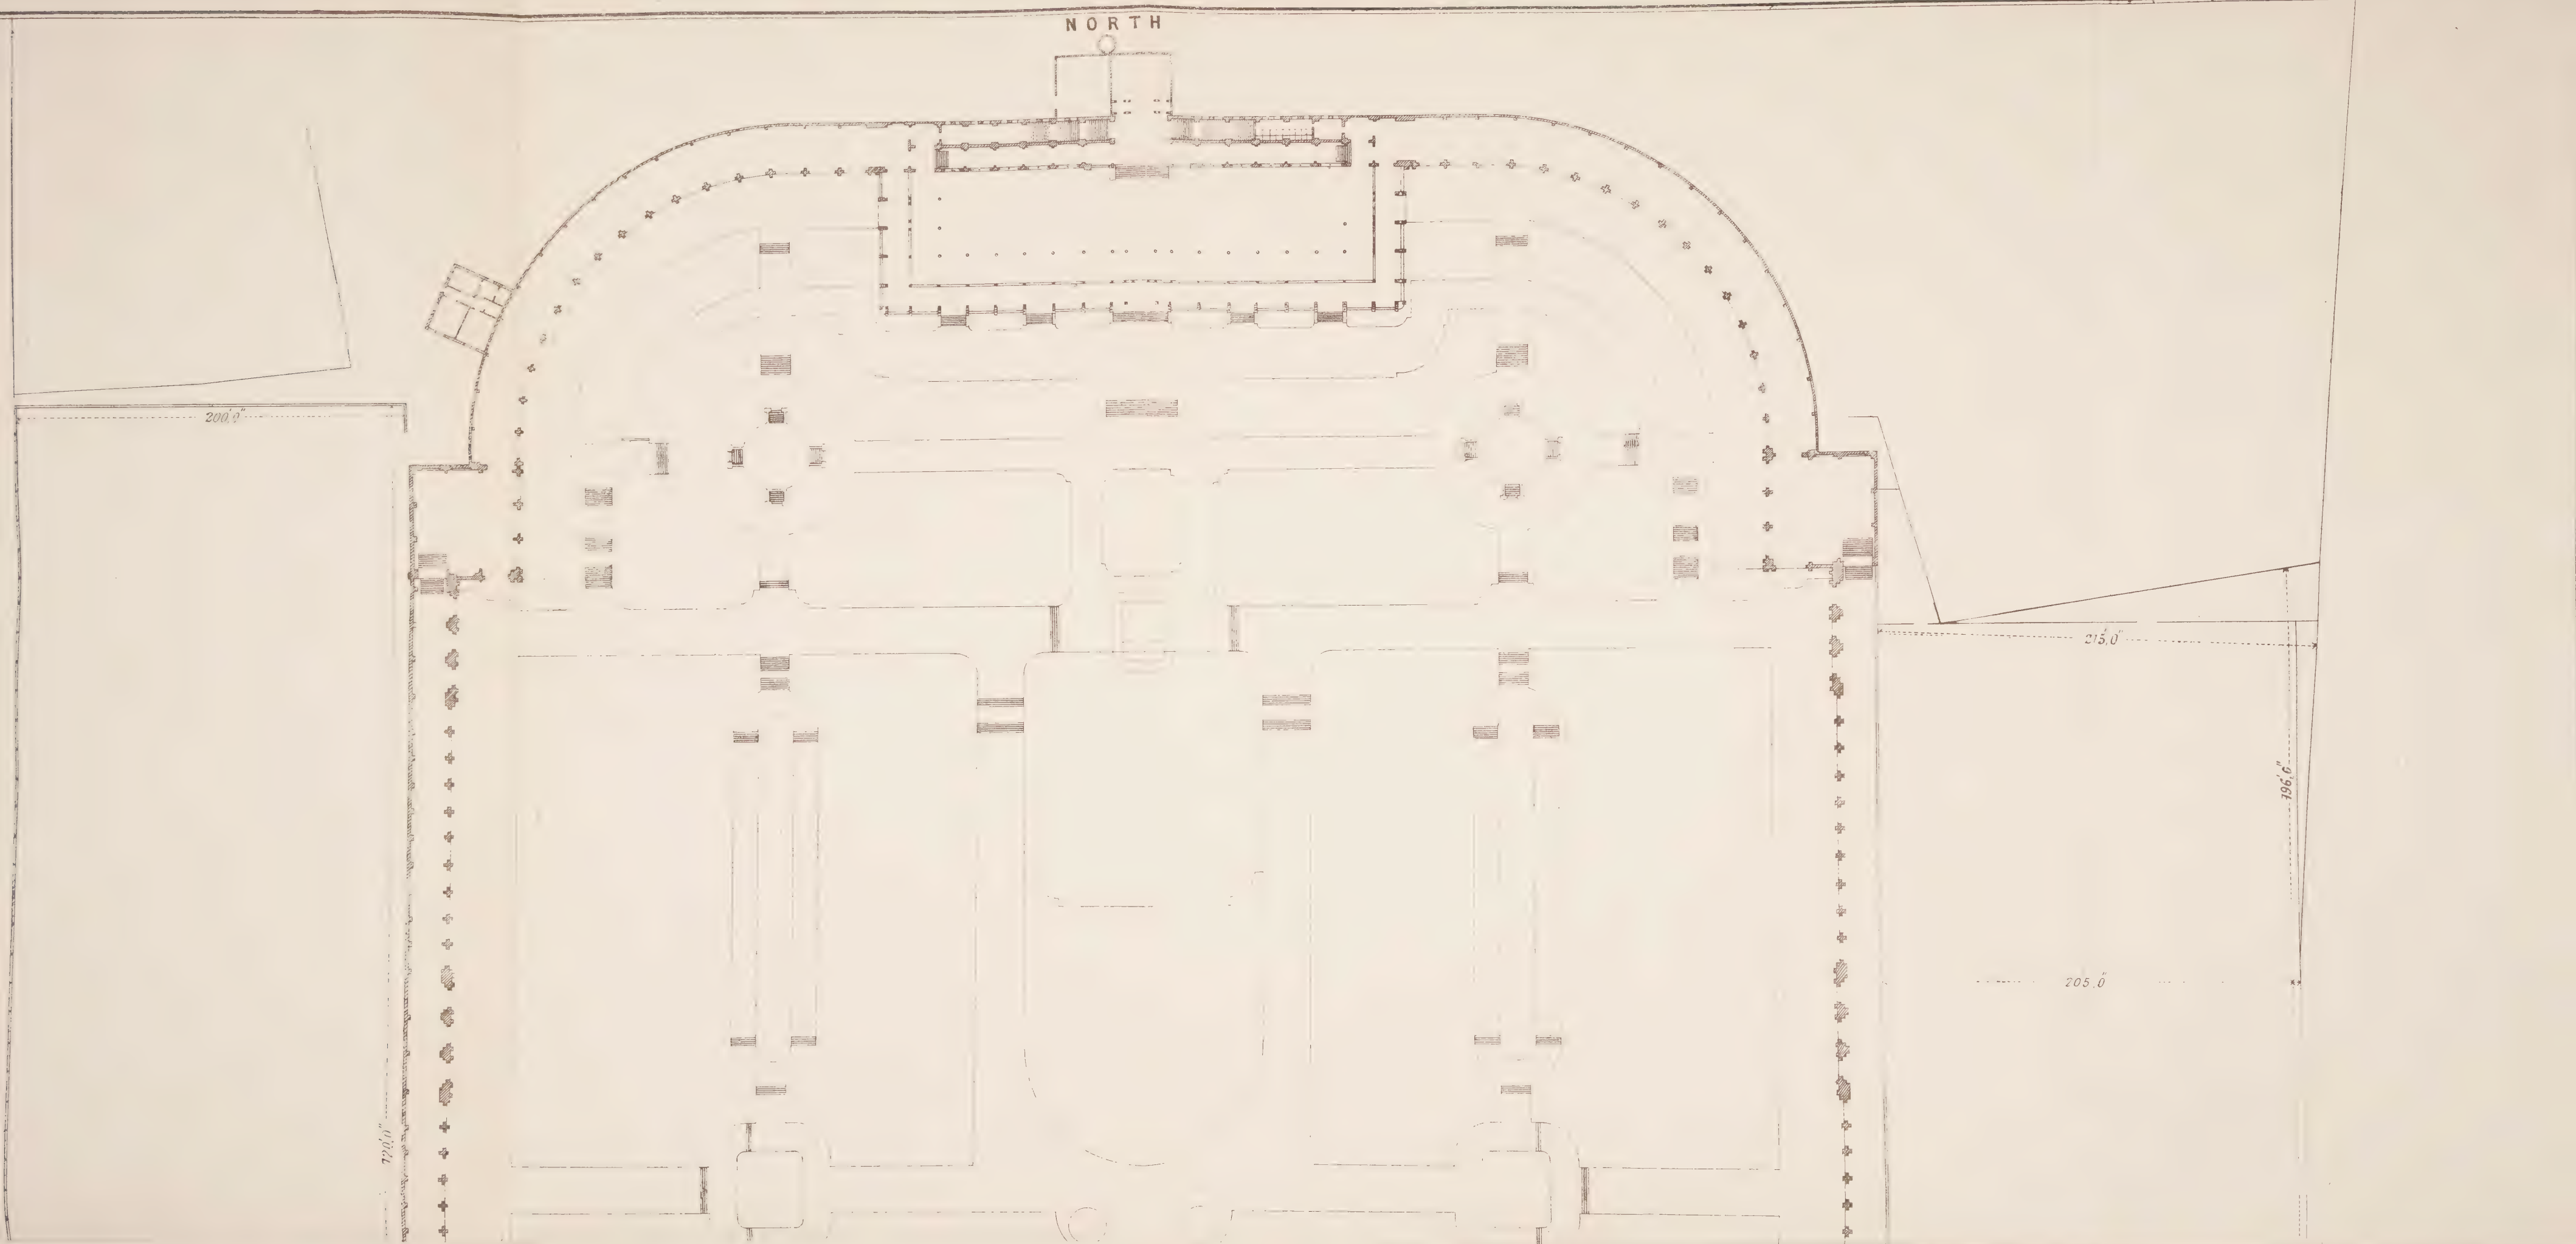

I REQUEST that you will have the goodness to undertake the examination of the designs that have been sent to me, in pursuance of a public advertisement and of the accompanying instructions, for buildings to be erected on the land used in 1862 for the International Exhibition, and that you will award the premiums to the best of your judgment.

I have, &c.

Deduct Remittances from British Exchequer - - - £.				8,431,274 8 4
Balance of Remittances from Irish to British Exchequer - £.				20,904,178 19 11

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THIS Account is made out in the same form, and shows the same amounts up to the year 1854, as the former Returns therein referred to. But those Returns do not show upon what account such amounts were remitted; they state only that all sums remitted from the British to the Irish Exchequer, on account of Loans raised in Great Britain for Ireland, are excluded from the Returns. This information is now added, the account being made up for the whole period from 1796.

But although there would thus appear to be a balance of remittances from the Irish to the British Exchequer of 20,904,178 l. 19 s. 11 d., yet it is shown that by far the largest portion of this amount consists of repayments to the British Exchequer of advances made to the Irish Exchequer, those advances by Great Britain for the joint expenditure not being shown on the other side of the account, as not having been amounts remitted to Ireland, but applied to expenditure for which Ireland was liable.

It would also appear that, after deducting the final repayment in 1817, there has been remitted from the British to the Irish Exchequer, since the consolidation of the British and Irish Treasuries on 5 January 1817, a total amount of 5,149,304 l. 10 s. 11 d., and from the Irish to the British Exchequer, 11,745,000 l., showing a balance of 6,595,695 l. 9 s. 1 d., thus remitted from Ireland to Great Britain.

It is, however, to be observed that since the consolidation of the Public Revenues of Great Britain and Ireland on 5 January 1817, under the Act 56 Geo. III., c. 98, such revenues have been applied indiscriminately to the service of the United Kingdom, in pursuance of such Act, without any distinction as to the separate service of either Great Britain or Ireland; the only distinction observed being whether such services were paid in Great Britain or in Ireland. For instance, at 5 January 1817, the annual charge of that portion of the Irish Debt which was payable in Great Britain, amounted to 4,703,545 l. 16 s. 10 d., and from that period, the whole amount of this charge, being thenceforward a portion of the charge for the United Kingdom, was practically defrayed, year by year, out of the Revenues of Great Britain, and appears in the public accounts as a portion of the public expenditure of the United Kingdom in Great Britain. The whole amount of Navy Services for the United Kingdom has also been defrayed out of the revenue of Great Britain since 5 January 1817. And all Army expenditure in Ireland, defrayed through the medium of Bills of Exchange drawn on the Paymaster General in England, has been actually met by Issues from the British Exchequer.

In point of fact, the amounts which appear in the foregoing Return to have been remitted from Great Britain to Ireland, in the several years from 5 January 1817, show only the sums required for such portion of the public expenditure of the United Kingdom, as was defrayed in Ireland, beyond the amount of revenue raised in Ireland, and beyond the amount of Army expenditure provided for by Bills drawn on the Paymaster-General; whilst the amounts remitted from Ireland to Great Britain, show only the sums which were not required for such expenditure in Ireland, and were remitted to the British Exchequer for similar expenditure in Great Britain.

Such amounts were remitted in pursuance of Sec. 11 of the Act 56 Geo. III., c. 98, which provided that the Treasury might direct the issue of any part of the Quarterly Surplus of Consolidated Fund in either Exchequer, for the purpose of remittance to the other, as the exigencies of the Public Service of the United Kingdom might appear to them to require.

N O T E.

THE Amounts of Gross Revenue, including Balances and Arrears, stated in the Return, No. 256 of Session 1824, both for Great Britain and for Ireland, are the gross total sums received and to be accounted for. The amounts thus stated are identical with those shown in the Finance Accounts of the several years, and will be found in the general statement of the Public Income, with which the Finance Accounts of each kingdom commence. By reference to these statements, the several items of which these total amounts of gross revenue are composed will be distinctly seen. In the Finance Accounts for Ireland, the sums are expressed in Irish currency: in the Return, No. 256 of 1824, and in this Return, they are expressed in British currency.

The amounts of Net Revenue, stated in the Return, No. 256 of 1824, show the amounts remaining, after deducting from the amounts of gross revenue, drawbacks, repayments, discounts, and bounties in the nature of drawbacks, as well as management, or the expenditure for the collection of the revenue. But they include balances and arrears remaining in the hands of collectors and receivers at the end of each year, which must necessarily be carried forward to the receipt, and be available for the expenditure of the succeeding year.

In order, therefore, to show the amount of revenue applicable to the payment of the proportion, to which each kingdom was liable, of the general expenditure of each year, another column is added to this Return, showing the amount of revenue thus applicable, excluding balances remaining in the hands of collectors and receivers at the end of each year, but including the amounts paid for expenditure out of the revenue in its progress to the Exchequer, and also including the amounts paid for management of the revenue, in accordance with the decision of the Select Committee on the Public Income and Expenditure of Ireland (Report, No. 262 of Session 1811, page 13), “ that in “ the settlement of the joint accounts between Great Britain and Ireland, the charges of management of the revenue should be considered as joint charge, to be defrayed in the ratio of their “ respective contributions under the Act of Union.”

A deduction is also made from the revenue of Great Britain in each year of 2-17ths of the amount of repayments to the British Exchequer on account of moneys imprested, or paid in advance, or on account, as stated and settled in the Appendix to the Report of the Select Committee on the Public Income and Expenditure of Ireland, No. 214 of Session 1815, page 30, and as similarly computed for the years 1815 and 1816; the amounts thus deducted are added to the revenue of Ireland, as due to that kingdom under the Act of Union.

These deductions and additions to the amount of net revenue stated in the Return, No. 256 of 1824, are shown in a separate account, Appendix, No. 1.

Under the head of expenditure for funded and unfunded debt, is included not only the interest and sinking fund, but also the management of the public debt.

Under the head of the proportion of the general expenditure of the United Kingdom to which each kingdom was liable, after deducting the expenditure for public debt, the following amounts, as finally settled and determined by the respective Treasuries of each kingdom, and reported to Parliament, are shown separately, viz:—

1. The separate expenditure of each kingdom on account of services prior to 1st January 1801, and other separate expenditure, as not belonging to the joint account of the United Kingdom.

2. The proportions of the joint expenditure of the United Kingdom, to be contributed by Great Britain and Ireland respectively under the Act of Union, that is to say, 15-17ths for Great Britain, and 2-17ths for Ireland.

The amounts of actual expenditure in each year of Great Britain and Ireland respectively, distinguishing the separate and joint expenditure, the total amount of joint expenditure, and the amounts of the proportions to be contributed respectively by Great Britain and Ireland under the Act of Union, are shown in a separate account, Appendix, No. 2.

Another account is added (Appendix, No. 3), to show a comparison of the amount of the actual joint expenditure of Great Britain and Ireland respectively in each year, with the proportionate amount to be contributed under the Act of Union, as settled and determined; showing also the amount of the proportion of Ireland, more or less than her actual joint expenditure, and the payments made by Ireland to Great Britain in liquidation of that balance.

RETURNS showing the GROSS and the NET REVENUE of Great Britain, in each Year from 1801 to 1816, the FUNDED and UNFUNDED DEBT due by Great Britain, and of the SINKING FUND applicable to the Interest and Provision for the Sinking Fund, applicable to the Payment of the Proportion of the GENERAL EXPENDITURE if any, of such BALANCE to the Discharge of such Proportion of the GENERAL EXPENDITURE in each of the Years.

Note.—The following Accounts are made out for the Financial Year ending on the 31st of March.

* In the Accounts of Separate and Joint Expenditure of Great Britain and Ireland, from 1801 to 1816 inclusive, as finally settled and determined by the respective Treasuries, and laid before Parliament, the whole amount of Discount for prompt payment of Contributions to Loans raised in Great Britain, partly for Great Britain and partly for Ireland, was charged to the Separate Account of Great Britain. The total amount of Loans so raised in the 16 years, was 292,300,000 l., of which 235,950,000 l. was for the Service of Great Britain, and 56,350,000 l. for the Service of Ireland; and the total amount of Discount so charged to the Separate Account of Great Britain was 2,791,551 l. 15 s. 2 d., including 176,672 l. 18 s. 9 d. discount charged in 1801 on the Loan for the year 1801, of which 2,000,000 l. was for the Service of Ireland. If this total amount of 2,791,551 l. 15 s. 2 d. had been charged to the Separate Account of Ireland, in the proportion of the Total Amount of these Loans raised for the Service of Great Britain and Ireland respectively, Great Britain would have been charged 2,270,215 l. 7 s. 5 d.; and Ireland, 521,336 l. 7 s. 9 d.. This result would diminish the Total Deficit as stated above of Great Britain by the sum of 521,336 l. 7 s. 9 d., and would add a similar amount to the Total Deficit of Ireland.

 REDUCTION of such DEBT in each of the said Years:—Of the BALANCE of REVENUE, after Deduction of such

COPY of TREASURY MINUTE, dated 8 February 1864.

READ the following Reports of the Commissioners of Audit on the Expenditure Accounts of the Revenue Departments for the financial year ending 31st March 1863, submitted to this Board, in accordance with the provisions of the Act 24 & 25 Vict. c. 93, viz. :—

1485-64. Customs Account, 1862-3, Auditors' Report, dated 26th Jan. 1864.
1120-64. Inland Revenue	- ditto - - ditto - - 20th Jan. 1864.
841-64. Post Office	- ditto - - ditto - - 15th Jan. 1864.
1680-64. Non-effective Services of the three Departments	} ditto - - ditto - - 29th Jan. 1864.

In the Report on the Customs Account the attention of the Board is called to the practice adopted in the preparation of the Customs Estimate, of inserting therein certain net sums, after deducting the repayments made by the Board of Trade for the estimated expense of collecting the Light Dues by Customs officers. My Lords have already decided this question by their Minute of the 18th December last, in which the Board of Customs was authorised to make full provision in the Customs Estimate for 1864-65, for the expense of collecting the Light Dues, and to pay the sum received from the Board of Trade into the Exchequer, instead of crediting the same in reduction of the annual charge of collection.

A similar question is raised in the Auditors' Report on the Inland Revenue Account. It appears that the annual estimate has been prepared for the net expense to be incurred for certain services, after deducting repayments made by other departments for business done on behalf of such departments. My Lords will give directions that these charges shall only be provided for in future in the Estimate for the Inland Revenue, and that the repayments to which the Commissioners of Audit have called attention shall cease. Let the error of 75 l. referred to in the 3rd paragraph of the Auditors' Report, be corrected in the Abstract of the Accounts to be submitted to the House of Commons.

In the Auditors' Report on the Post Office Account the attention of this Board is called to a credit given under Sub-estimate A, "Salaries and Contingencies of the Chief Offices," by which the net instead of the gross expenditure for that service is shown. This credit was in repayment of an advance by the Post Office for a service which was not provided for in the Post Office Estimate, and has therefore been properly credited to the Vote from which the advance was made. My Lords desire, however, that in future Estimates the full charge for the service be provided for in the estimates of the department which performs the service.

Let the error of 5 l. 4 s. under the head of "Buildings and Repairs" in the Post Office Account, be corrected in the Abstract of the Accounts to be submitted to the House of Commons.

The surplus to be surrendered to the Exchequer on the Post Office Grant will be 48,959 l. 8 s. 1½ d., and the further sum of 4,186 l. 9 s. 11 d., received out of the Vote for the National Debt Office, making together a total surplus of 53,145 l. 18 s. -¾ d.

The Commissioners of Audit report an error of 12 l. 2 s. 10 d. in the Post Office Account for Non-effective Services. My Lords desire that the same may be rectified in the corrected Abstract of the Accounts.

Transmit copy of this Minute to the Commissioners of Customs, the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, the Postmaster General, and the Commissioners of Audit, for their information and guidance.

Let copy of this Minute be laid before the House of Commons, with the Accounts and Reports of the Commissioners of Audit, as required by the Act 24 & 25 Vict. c. 93.

We, the Commissioners for Auditing the Public Accounts, do hereby certify that the foregoing account has been examined by officers under our directions, and that the above is a correct statement of the expenditure of the sum granted by Parliament for the service of the Customs for the year 1862-3.

Audit Office, Somerset House, London, W. C.,
26 January 1864.

My Lords,

We beg leave to transmit the accompanying copy of the account of the appropriation of the Grant made by Act of 25 & 26 Vict. c. 71, for the expenses of the Customs Department for the year 1862-3, forwarded to us by the Commissioners of Customs, in pursuance of the Act of 24 & 25 Vict. c. 93.

The balance, or savings, of the Grant for the Service of the preceding year, viz., 18,374 l. 1 s. 11 d., has been duly surrendered to the Exchequer, in accordance with your Lordships' Minute of 12th February 1863, as we learn by a letter from the Assistant Comptroller of the Exchequer, dated 29th ultimo.

In the present Account, we find the Expenditure to be correctly stated, as against the Estimates, under their several heads of Service.

The Estimates were made for the net Expenditure, after deduction of the anticipated receipt of the three following sums from the Board of Trade for business to be done on their account, in the collection of "Light Dues," viz. :—

At the Port of London - - - - -	1,850
At the Port of Liverpool - - - - -	1,775
At other Ports - - - - -	5,000
	£. 8,625

The net expenditure, only, is accordingly charged against the Estimates, after deducting the above sums, which were received during the course of the year.

The Account has thus been rendered, in accordance with the principle upon which the Estimates were prepared, and the Vote taken. But it may be proper to advert to the circumstance, that this mode of taking the Estimates is not in accordance with the principle laid down by your Lordships, as appears from the 9th paragraph of your Lordship's Minute of 2d May 1848, viz.—“After a careful consideration of the recommendations of the several Committees of the House of Commons, before referred to, respecting the mode of carrying these Appropriations to the credit of the public, and of the effects of the various principles hitherto adopted, my Lords are of opinion that henceforward the great departments of Public Expenditure should submit their Annual Estimates to Parliament, without any deduction on account of Appropriations in aid, and that the full sums required for Naval and Military Services should be voted. They are, therefore pleased to direct that no further Appropriations shall be credited in aid of the Army, Commissariat, Navy and Ordnance Votes; but that the receipts in question shall, commencing from the present time, be paid over quarterly to Her Majesty's Exchequer, to be appropriated as Ways and Means.”

We have also to advert to the circumstance that, while the details of the Estimate, as originally made, have remained unaltered, the total has been reduced from 750,442 l. to 750,000 l., and a Vote taken for the smaller amount. It became necessary, therefore, that the Account, in order to fulfil the requirements of the Act of 24 & 25 Vict. c. 93, under which it is rendered, should exhibit, as it does, a twofold comparison—first, as between the Expenditure and the details of the Estimate, under the several heads of Service; and secondly, as between the Total Expenditure and the Vote. The balance arising from a comparison between the amount of the Vote (750,000 l.), and the Total of the Expenditure (726,516 l. 10 s. 8 d.), is 23,483 l. 9 s. 4 d.; and this appears to be the amount to be surrendered as savings.

The Account of the non-effective Services will form the subject of a separate Report, together with those of the Inland Revenue and Post-office, inasmuch as the non-effective services of the three departments are provided for in one and the same Vote.

We have, &c.

We, the Commissioners for Auditing the Public Accounts, do hereby certify that the foregoing account has been examined by officers under our directions, and that, subject to the observations contained in our Report, No. 15, dated the 20th January 1864, accompanying this account, the above is a correct statement of the expenditure of the sums granted by Parliament for the charges of collection of the Inland Revenue of the year 1862-63.

Dated at the Audit Office, Somerset House, this 20th day of January 1864.

Edwd. Romilly.
Henry Arbuthnot.
R. Vaughan Davis.

My Lords,

20 January 1864.

Before we proceed to report of the present account, we have to state that we are informed, by a letter from the Assistant Comptroller of the Exchequer, dated 29th ultimo, that the balance or saving on the Grant for the year 1861-2, viz., 145,797*l.* 2*s.* 11*d.* has been duly surrendered in accordance with your Lordship's Minute of 12th February 1863.

In the present account we find a charge of 75*l.* for a quarter's salary of the Inspector of Corn Returns in London, placed in the "Expenditure" column, under the head of "Salaries and Allowances of the Board, Officers, and others on the Establishment in England." The admission of this salary (which, although paid through the Board of Inland Revenue, is not chargeable to that Department) into the account, is admitted to be an oversight.

On the other hand, payments to the amount of 3,885 l. under the same head of service, have been excluded from the Expenditure column, which payments, as it appears to us, should have formed part of the charge against the vote.

This sum of 3,885*l.* is the amount received from other departments, for business done on their account, and the net amount of the salaries and allowances, after deduction of that sum, is returned as the expenditure against the Estimate and Grant; but no corresponding deductions appear on the face of the Estimates.

It is stated, indeed, by the chief accountant, in reply to an inquiry from us respecting the apparent comparison of a net Expenditure with a gross Estimate, that the Estimate was, in point of fact, made for the net amount; inasmuch as the salaries of certain officers, whose time had been partly occupied by the business of the other departments, had been returned in the Estimates at sums less than those payable to them, to the extent of the deduction made in the Expenditure column. Nevertheless, as there was nothing on the face of the Estimates presented to 'The House' of Commons, from which it could have been inferred that any such deductions had been made, we cannot but assume that the Grant by Parliament was for the gross expenditure of the service. We apprehend, therefore, that the gross amount of the salaries and allowances paid is the proper sum to be returned in the Expenditure column, and that the sum of 3,885*l.* received from the departments concerned, should be paid into the Exchequer as extra receipts.

Should these views be concurred in, both as regards the deduction of 75*l.* from the amount returned in the account as Expenditure, and the addition of 3,885*l.* thereto, the effect would be to raise the sum entered under the head of "Salaries, &c.," to 593,861*l.* 19*s.* 1*d.*, and the total "Expenditure" to 1,275,753*l.* 18*s.*, while the balance or savings to be surrendered would be reduced to 106,520*l.* 2*s.*

We have only further to notice the trifling misclassification of two items of expenditure, a payment of 60*l.* 10*s.* 10*d.* properly belonging to the head of "Poundage to Clerks to Local Commissioners of Taxes," has been entered under that of "Miscellaneous Expenses;" and a payment of 1*l.* belonging to the head of "Poundage to Collectors and Assessors," under that of "Poundage to Clerks to Local Commissioners of Taxes." The correction of the classification would raise the expenditure entered under the head of "Poundage to Clerks to Local Commissioners to 83,461*l.* 19*s.* 4*d.*," and that under the head of "Poundage to Collectors, &c.," to 128,390*l.* 17*s.* 9*d.*, and would reduce that under the head of "Miscellaneous Expenses" to 91,173*l.* 6*s.* 1*d.*, but would leave the balance undisturbed.

The non-effective services of the Inland Revenue being provided for, conjointly with those of the Customs and Post Office, in one and the same vote, will form the subject of a separate Report.

We have, &c.

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's
Treasury,

We, the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, do hereby certify that the foregoing Account has been examined by officers under our directions; and that, subject to the observations contained in our Report, No. 46, dated 15th January 1864, accompanying this Account, the above is a correct statement of the expenditure of the sums granted by Parliament for the Post Office Service of the year 1862-63.

Dated at the Audit Office, Somerset House, this 15th January 1864. (signed) Edwd. Romilly.
Henry Arbuthnot.

Audit Office, Somerset House, London, W.C.,
15 January 1864.

My Lords,

WE beg to transmit the accompanying copy of the Account of the Appropriation of the Sums granted by Parliament for the Service of the Post-office for the year 1862-3, forwarded to us by the Postmaster General, in pursuance of the Act of 24 & 25 Vict. c. 93.

The Account is exhibited for the three branches of the Service for which the Grants were severally made, viz. :—

The General Service,
The Packet Service, and
The non-Effective Services;

and is classed under the several heads under which the Estimates of the year were made, as provided by the 1st section of the above-mentioned Act.

We are informed by letter from the Assistant Comptroller of the Exchequer, dated the 29th ultimo, that the sum of 8,263*l.* 13*s.* 9*d.*, the amount of the Savings out of the Vote for the General Service of the Post-office for the preceding year ended 31st March 1862, has been duly surrendered, in pursuance of your Lordship's Minute of 12th February last.

The deficiency in the Grant for the Packet Service of 1861-2 was met by a Supplementary Grant.

The Savings of 1861-2 on the Vote for the non-effective Services will be noticed in a separate Report, together with those of the Customs Inland Revenue, for the reasons hereinafter mentioned.

We proceed to report on the appropriation of the Grants for the several branches of the Service for 1862-3, viz. :

GENERAL SERVICE.

In the course of the examination of the Account of this Branch, we have observed that a sum of 4,186*l.* 9*s.* 11*d.*, which was recovered from the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, on account of business transacted by the Post-office for their department, in the management of the Post-office Savings Banks, has been deducted from the amount of the payments made, under the head of "Chief Offices, London, Dublin, and Edinburgh" (marked A), and the net amount, after such deduction, carried to the Account as the "Amount Expended," under this head.

Inasmuch, however, as the Vote was taken for the gross amount of the Salaries and Contingencies of the Chief Offices, as given in detail and summed up in an Appendix (A) to the Estimate, it appears to us that the gross amount also of the payments should have been set against the Estimate, as the sum expended in respect thereof, and that the sum of 4,186*l.* 9*s.* 11*d.*, received from the National Debt Commissioners, should have been paid into the Exchequer.

We have also to notice that, under the head of "Buildings and Repairs" (marked H) the Postmaster General has returned the Expenditure by the Board of Works on Post-office Buildings as 69,280*l.* 13*s.* 9*d.*, which was the sum certified to him, by the Accountant of that Department, as having been so expended in the year 1862-3. It appears, however, by the Account of the Commissioners of Public Works, subsequently made up and rendered to us for that year, that the sum actually expended for the Post-office was 69,275*l.* 9*s.* 9*d.* only, the difference being 5*l.* 4*s.*

We have to submit, therefore, that the sum returned in the Appropriation Account, as the Expenditure under this head, should be reduced by that amount, viz., from 70,330*l.* 13*s.* 9*d.* to 70,325*l.* 9*s.* 9*d.*

These are the only remarks affecting the Balance, which we have to offer on this, the General Branch of the Service; and if they are correct, then the Surplus remaining to be surrendered will be 48,959*l.* 8*s.* 1½*d.*, instead of 53,140*l.* 14*s.* -¾*d.*

In three instances there appear to be errors of classification, the rectification of which, however, would involve merely the transposition of some small sums among the several heads of Service, leaving the Balance undisturbed, viz., two sums of 22*l.* 11*s.* and 1*l.* 5*s.* respectively, properly chargeable under the head of "Conveyance of Mails" (marked G), are charged under that of "Chief Offices, &c." (marked A); and 18*s.*, properly chargeable under the latter head (A), is charged under the former (G).

The

The effect of the transfer of these several sums to their proper heads of Service would be, to increase that of "Conveyance of Mails" (G), by the sum of 22 l. 18 s., and to decrease that of "Chief Offices, &c." (A), by the same amount.

The Account of this branch of the Service, corrected in accordance with the foregoing observations would be as follows, viz. :—

Sub-estimate.	1862-3.	Amount Voted.			Amount Expended.			Surplus.			Deficiency.
		£.	s.	d.	£.	s.	d.	£.	s.	d.	£.	s.	d.

PACKET SERVICE.

On this branch we have to remark that, by the Post-office contract with the Dublin Steam Packet Company, it was stipulated that the Postmaster General should pay 85,900 l. per annum for the services contracted for, receiving a certain proportion of the profits earned by the packets.

The Post Office share of the profits amounted, in the year 1862-3, to 5,945 l. 17 s. 11 d. In the appropriation account, as rendered to us, this sum has been deducted from the gross amount paid under the contract, and the net sum, after such deduction, carried to the account as the "Amount Expended" in respect of the Vote. But the Vote having been taken for the gross amount of the contract, without reference to the profits which might accrue to the Post Office, we apprehend that in this case, as in that of the receipts from the National Debt Commissioners above-mentioned, the gross amount of the payments should have been entered in the account as the "Amount Expended," and the profits, viz., 5,945 l. 17 s. 11 d., paid into the Exchequer.

It would follow, from what has been stated, that the "Amount Expended" under the head of "Contracts" would stand as 896,588 l. 14 s. 1 d., and the surplus under the same head as 9,463 l. 5 s. 11 d., the total "Amount Expended" as 904,028 l. 5 s. 8 d., and the total "Surplus" to be surrendered as 11,868 l. 14 s. 4 d.

A portion of the expenses of the packets to India and certain of the colonies is borne as your Lordships are aware, by the Indian Government and the Colonies concerned. The anticipated contributions from these sources are deducted from the Gross Amount of the Estimated Expenses of the Packets, and the Vote taken for the Net amount of the Estimate after such deduction. In these cases, the Estimate and Vote being for the Net Expenses, we have admitted the amount of the Net Expenditure as the proper sum to be charged against the Net Estimate and Vote.

We observe, however, that the payments by the Colonies are very irregularly made. For the year 1862-3, the receipts in aid of the Service were estimated at 145,208 l.; but the payments made, included sums due on account of former years, so that the actual receipts within the year amounted to 225,748 l. 12 s. 6 d. The Postmaster General has therefore applied these receipts in aid of the Vote to the extent of the Estimated Contributions for the year, viz., 145,268 l., and has paid the Balance, viz., 80,540 l. 12 s. 6 d. into the Exchequer. This arrangement appears to be in accordance with the principle laid down in the following clause of Mr. Hamilton's letter to the Postmaster General, dated 25th March 1862:—"My Lords desire that your Lordship will pay to the Account of the Exchequer at the Bank of England, before the 31st instant" (March 1862), "the sum 18,804 l. 17 s. 6 d., received from Colonial Governments on account of Mail Service, in excess of the deductions made in the Estimate in respect of such receipts."

We, the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, do hereby certify that the foregoing Account has been examined by officers under our directions, and that the above is a correct statement of the expenditure of the sums granted by Parliament for the Non-Effective Services of the Inland Revenue of the year 1862-63.

(No. 49.)

Audit Office, Somerset House, London, W.C.,
29 January 1864.

My Lords,

WE have the honour to transmit herewith copies of the accounts of the appropriation of the Grant made, by Act of 25 & 26 Vict. c. 71, for non-effective services in the Customs, the Inland Revenue and the Post Office Departments, for the year ended 31st March 1863, which accounts have been rendered to us in pursuance of the Act of 24 & 25 Vict. c. 93.

In consequence of the non-effective services of these Departments having been provided for in one and the same vote, it becomes necessary that the three accounts of the appropriation of the vote should also be exhibited in a single statement.

We have, therefore, compared the Expenditure with the Estimates under the three several heads of Service, and we have subjoined a statement exhibiting the total expenditure for the non-effective services of the three Departments, as compared with the Grant, and showing also the result of our examination.

The only observation we have to make is that the Expenditure column of the account of the Post Office includes an admitted over-payment of 12*l.* 2*s.* 10*d.*, which should not, as it appears to us, be admitted as a charge against the Grant. We are informed that this sum is in course of recovery.

Should this amendment of the account be adopted, the amount to be surrendered at the Exchequer as savings on the Vote for the non-effective services of the three Departments would be 25,744*l.* 16*s.* 10*d.*, as will appear from the subjoined statement.

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's
Treasury,
&c. &c. &c.

We have &c.

* In 1811, a sum of 4,500,000 £., part of a Loan of 12,000,000 £., per 51 Geo. 3, c. 49, chargeable on Great Britain, was authorised to be applied to service of Ireland. The annual charge for the portion of the Loan applied to Ireland was as follows :—

	£.	s.	d.
Interest - - - -	213,562	10	-
Sinking Fund - - - -	63,544	3	2
Management - - - -	2,006	14	4
TOTAL - - - -	£. 279,113	7	6

The whole of this annual charge was defrayed by Great Britain, no distinct provision for the payment thereof by Ireland having been made in the way by Parliament.—(See Report of Select Committee of 1815, Commons Paper 214, 1815, pp. 5 and 28.) But it was distinctly stated in Parliament that the charge so defrayed by Great Britain should be considered as a Loan to Ireland. (See Hansard, 20 May 1811.)

† The Act 54 Geo. 3, c. 76, does not appear to contain the usual clause providing for the payment, by Ireland, of the annual charge of the created in respect of the sum of 5,500,000 £. directed by s. 19 to be remitted to Ireland, and to be applied to the service of Ireland; neither can such provision be found in any subsequent Act. The several charges upon this amount of Debt appear, however, to have been actually paid by Ireland and to have been remitted to Great Britain from time to time when due. By reference to the Irish Budget brought before the House of Commons 1 July 1814, by Mr. William Fitzgerald, the Chancellor of the Irish Exchequer, it will be seen that the amount of 5,500,000 £., to be raised by Loan, was included in his Estimate of Ways and Means for Ireland in this year, and that the annual charge for the corresponding amount of created was included in his Estimate of Expenditure, the necessary provision for this charge being voted in a Committee of Ways and Means on the same day. (See Hansard, and Commons Paper 352 of 1814.)

ROEHAMPTON GATE (RICHMOND PARK).

RETURN to an Order of the Honourable The House of Commons,
dated 20 June 1864;—for,

COPY “of all CORRESPONDENCE with the OFFICE of HER MAJESTY’S WORKS, relating to the PRIVATE ROAD leading to the ROEHAMPTON GATE of RICH-

25 June 1864.

WILLIAM COWPER,
First Commissioner of Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings.

Sir,

Office of Works, &c., 13 May 1864.

I AM directed by the First Commissioner of Her Majesty’s Works, &c., to acquaint you that complaints have been made to him of persons being refused a passage through the Roehampton Gate of Richmond Park, on account of permission not having been given by you, and that the gatekeeper has received instructions not to lead persons to suppose that the use of the gate is dependent upon your will, but only the use of the private road, and that the notices affixed to the park gates will be altered accordingly.

In making this communication to you, the First Commissioner desires me to submit for your consideration whether, having regard to the fact that the maintenance of the gate is a great benefit to your property, you will not be disposed to extend more widely the permission to pass along your private road, and whether you will give a general order for the admission of all persons on horseback, without a special permission in each individual case. It appears to the First Commissioner that this might be done without throwing the slightest doubt over your rights of property in the road, as you would of course continue to shut up the road strictly against every one during a particular day in the year as an evidence of your right. I am to add that the First Commissioner does not suggest that you should admit private carriages generally, because the wear and tear of carriages might increase the cost of maintaining the road, but this objection would apply in a very slight degree to the admission of persons on horseback. If you should be inclined to adopt so liberal a course, you would confer a great obligation upon many persons who can reach the park more quickly from London in that direction than in any other, and your liberality would be highly appreciated.

I am, &c.

(signed) Alfred Austin,
Secretary.

W. G. Prescott, Esq.

Sir,

Clarence, Roehampton, S.W., 18 May 1864.

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 13th inst., in which you state that complaints have been made of persons having been refused a passage through the Roehampton Gate of Richmond Park into my private roads on account of permission not having been granted by me, and suggesting that I should give a general order for the admission of all persons on horseback.

The roads to which you refer are, in every sense, my private property, and run close to my house and grounds.

To grant the public such a right of way as requested by you (which practically could never be recalled), would not only depreciate my property, but also destroy the privacy of my residence, which you must be well aware is all-important in the neighbourhood of London.

I, therefore, regret that I cannot comply with your request.

With respect to your suggestion that the maintenance of the park gate, being a great benefit to my property, I should extend the permission to pass along my roads to all persons on horseback, I claim to be the best judge in what way my property may be most beneficially enjoyed. I admit that the maintenance of the gate affords me a certain convenience; on the other hand, the closing of it would not be without advantages, and at any rate I should decidedly prefer the gate being closed to the roads being made more public.

I have, &c.

The Right Hon. the First Commissioner,
Her Majesty's Works, &c.

Sir,

Office of Works, &c., 10 June 1864.

IN reply to your letter of 18th May I am directed by the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works, &c., to explain that his communication arose from no desire of officious interference with the exercise of your undoubted rights over your own property, but from the belief that it was his duty to invite your special attention to the peculiar circumstances under which those rights affect the convenience of a portion of the public. The Sovereign has permitted the public to have the enjoyment of Richmond Park for purposes of recreation under certain restrictions. The Roehampton Gate is the most convenient access to the park from the west end of London. A private road is interposed between that gate and the highway on Barnes Common, and consequently the use of this entrance by the Queen's permission is practically dependent upon a similar permission from yourself for the use of your road. You have, like your predecessor, been most liberal in granting permission to those who have applied to you for leave to pass along your road, and the First Commissioner hopes that you will be willing to take again into consideration the application that he makes on behalf of that portion of the public who are allowed by the regulations of the park to use the Roehampton Gate.

I am, &c.

W. G. Prescott, Esq.

(signed) Alfred Austin, Secretary.

Sir,

Clarence, Roehampton, 15 June 1864.

I HAVE the honour of acknowledging the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst., explaining your belief that it was your duty to invite my special attention to the peculiar circumstances under which my private rights affect the convenience of a portion of the public, and asking me to take again into consideration your letter of the 13th ultimo, with reference to opening to the public my private roads leading to the Roehampton Gate of Richmond Park.

You state that the Sovereign has permitted the public to have the enjoyment of Richmond Park for the purposes of recreation under certain restrictions, that the Roehampton Gate is the most convenient access to the park from the west end of London, and that a private road is interposed between the gate and the highway.

I can perceive no analogy between the use of the park and that of my private road; the former is maintained at the public expense, and the using of the Roehampton Gate does not interfere with the convenience of anyone, whereas the road is land purchased by me; such road is repaired at my expense, and the lodges and lodge gates are maintained for the express purpose of preserving the privacy of my residence.

That

That the road is the most convenient access to the park from the west end of London only tends to show that the traffic along the road, if opened, would be considerable, and forms, in my mind, the main reason for not acceding to your request.

If this were a place at some distance from London the case would be different; so close to London, with the certainty of a great amount of Sunday and holiday traffic to Richmond, Hampton, and elsewhere, the request to open the road is one with which I cannot reasonably be expected to comply.

You further state, that a private road is "interposed" between the gate and the highway, as if it had been made for the purpose of obstruction, which (the road having existed very long before the public were admitted to the park) is obviously not the case. Moreover, the road is now, and always has been open, to all foot passengers.

In conclusion, I must express my regret that I cannot alter the decision which I have already conveyed to you on the subject, and I have therefore to refer you to my letter of the 18th ultimo, and to repeat that I should decidedly prefer the gate being closed, to the roads being made more public.

I am, &c.

*The Stock held by the Commissioners has always been valued in these Accounts at the Prices on 20th November in each year. If those Prices be higher at one period than another, in the same degree will the value of the securities appear to be greater or less, and so of the Balance deficient. The prices of Stock on 20th November 1862 and 20th November 1863 were as follows:—

	1862.	1863.
Consolidated 3 per Cents. - - - - -	93 $\frac{1}{2}$	92 $\frac{1}{2}$
Reduced 3 per Cents. - - - - -	92	90 $\frac{1}{2}$

Upon this principle the Balance deficient on 20th November 1863 is made to appear £. 3,409,791. 10. 2., while the same principle made it appear £. 4,996,148. 14., on 20th November 1862.

General Note.—The Number of Hours given in the last column does not in numerous instances, as appears by the Returns received at the National Debt Office, show to anything like the full extent the time occupied in transacting the whole business of the Banks; the attention of the Officers and Clerks being much occupied with Correspondence, attendance on Trustees and Managers at their meetings, half-yearly Balances of Accounts, preparation of Returns to the Commissioners and to Parliament, and various incidental matters in addition to the ordinary business arising from receipt and payment of money.

F. PEEL.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the 26th year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the investment of the moneys received by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, from the Trustees of Savings Banks, established under the enactments of the Act 9 Geo. 4, c. 92," it is enacted, that in addition to the Capital Stock of Annuities held for Savings Banks by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and directed to be cancelled by the first section of the said Act, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, if they shall think it advantageous for the public service, may, from time to time, by warrant under their hands, direct the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to cancel such further amount of the Capital Stock of Annuities standing in the books of the said Governor and Company to the credit of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, for Savings Banks, as the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may think advisable, not exceeding in the whole the sum of 5,000,000 £.; and all interest and dividends thereon shall thenceforth cease to be payable; and that whenever the said Commissioners shall exercise the powers in them vested in that respect by the said Act, they shall, by warrant under their hands, create, and cause to be inscribed in the books of Her Majesty's Exchequer, and in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to the account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, for Savings Banks, established under the provisions of the Act of 9 Geo. 4, c. 92, equivalent Terminable Annuities for the amount of Capital Stocks of Annuities so cancelled; and that such Terminable Annuities shall be charged upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, and shall be payable half yearly on the 10th day of October and the 5th day of April in every year; the last half yearly payment thereof to fall due and payable on the 5th day of April 1885; and that the amount of such Terminable Annuities so to be charged upon the Consolidated Fund, shall be ascertained by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, to be certified to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, under the hands of the Comptroller General, or Assistant Comptroller, and of the Actuary of the National Debt, setting forth the amount of the Terminable Annuities which would be granted by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, under the 10 Geo. 4, c. 24, to any person or persons desirous of purchasing such Terminable Annuities, as a consideration for the like amount of Capital Stock of Annuities, to be transferred by such person or persons to the said Commissioners, to be cancelled under the authority of the said last-mentioned Act.

And whereas it appears to us, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, that the following amounts of such Capital Stocks as aforesaid, should be cancelled, viz. :—

£.3,497,936	13	8	New 3 l. per cent. Annuities,
502,063	6	4	Reduced 3 l. per cent. Annuities, and
1,000,000	—	—	Consolidated 3 l. per cent. Annuities,

Making in the whole the sum of five million pounds (5,000,000 l.)

And whereas it further appears, by a certificate laid before us in manner directed by the said Act, that the equivalent Terminable Annuity to be granted to the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt for the fund for Savings Banks, is 315,017 l. for 21½ years certain, payable half yearly, and expiring on the 5th day of April 1885; now therefore we, the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do direct you to cancel the aforesaid amounts of Capital Stock, standing in your books to the credit of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt for Savings Banks, viz. :—

£.3,497,936	13	8	New 3 l. per cent. Annuities,
502,063	6	4	Reduced 3 l. per cent. Annuities, and
1,000,000	—	—	Consolidated 3 l. per cent. Annuities, amounting in the whole to the sum of 5,000,000 l., and that in place thereof you inscribe in your books an annuity of Three hundred and Fifteen thousand and seventeen pounds (315,017 l.) payable half yearly on the 10th day of October and the 5th day of April in every year; the first half-yearly payment whereof shall fall due and payable on the 5th day of April 1864, and the last half-yearly payment whereof shall fall due and payable on the 5th day of April 1885; and place the same to the credit of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt for the Fund for Savings Banks.

And we do also direct that the said Annuity be consolidated with and deemed part of the Joint Stock of the Terminable Annuities created by the Act 23 & 24 Vict. c. 109, s. 3.

SUPERANNUATION ACT.

RETURN to an Order of the Honourable The House of Commons,
dated 3 June 1864;—for,

COPIES “of CORRESPONDENCE between the Right Honourable Sir
Edmund Head and the Treasury on the subject of a CLAIM under the SUPERANNUATION ACT:”

“And, of the TREASURY MINUTE of the 13th day of January 1857, relating to SUPERANNUATION ALLOWANCES to OFFICERS of the POOR LAW BOARD.”

Treasury Chambers, }
6 June 1864. }

F. PEEL.

The Right Honourable Sir Edmund Head to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury.

My Lords,

Civil Service Commission,
27 February 1863.

ON the 18th of January 1836 I was appointed an Assistant Poor Law Commissioner.

On the 20th of December 1841 I was appointed a Commissioner under the Poor Law Amendment Act, and I retained that office until, in consequence of the change made in the constitution of the Board, I resigned it on the 17th of December 1847.

On the 20th of October 1847 I was appointed under the Sign Manual Lieutenant Governor of the Colony of New Brunswick, of which office I discharged the duties from the Spring of 1848 until the Autumn of 1854.

On the 20th of September 1854 I was appointed by Letters Patent Governor General of British North America and Governor of Canada; I assumed that government on Lord Elgin's retirement in December 1854, and I continued to administer it until the 25th of October 1861, when I was succeeded by Lord Monck as administrator of the Government of Canada. My commission, I believe, remained in force until the 28th of November, when Lord Monck was proclaimed in the Colony; but I discharged no duties, and received no salary after the 25th of October.

From this statement of facts it will appear:

First. That from the 18th of January 1836 to the 17th of December 1847 I held an office which, under the present Act (22 Vict. c. 26), would entitle me to superannuation allowance. The salary of a Poor Law Commissioner at that time was, as your Lordships know, 2,000 l. per annum.

Secondly. That on the 20th of October 1847 I was “transferred” to another office not entitled to superannuation allowance; being one of those specially mentioned in the proviso to the 12th section of the Act 22 Vict. c. 26: viz., that of Lieutenant Governor of New Brunswick:

That I was in the strictest sense of the word “transferred” is shown by the fact that I continued to discharge the duties of one office after my present appointment to the other.

Thirdly. That in 1854 I was promoted to the office of Governor General of British North America and Governor of Canada, which I held until 25th October 1861.

Report of Commissioners on Superannuations, 1857, p. xxii.

On the 13th of January 1857 a Treasury Minute was passed, which had especial reference to the superannuation of persons who had served in the Poor Law Department. In that Minute a reference is made to the pensions of Mr. Nicholls, and Mr. Chadwick as granted to them "virtually as Poor Law Officers," and the Lords of the Treasury direct a calculation to be made at a certain reduced rate for pensions to Mr. Wall and Mr. Hodgkin.

The following words occur in this Minute :—

"My Lords have arrived at the conclusion that they cannot but recognise the right of the officers of that (i. e. the Poor Law Department) to some allowance on their retirement."

On the 19th of April 1859, two years after the recognition of this right by the Treasury, the Act now in force (22 Vict. c. 26) became law.

The 12th section of that Act provides for the cases of persons who may be, or may have been, transferred from employments entitling to superannuation allowance to others which confer no such privilege, and the proviso to that section appears intended to allow colonial governors the benefit of any such prior claims, with the addition of such time as may be spent in colonial service.

If this be the object of the section in question, I am desirous of knowing whether your Lordships think me entitled to claim the benefit of it at the expiration, not of one term of colonial service, as would seem to satisfy the 12th section of the Act, but at the conclusion of two such terms, each exceeding in duration the usual period of six years.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury.

I am, &c.
(signed) Edmund Head.

The Secretary of the Treasury to the Right Honourable Sir Edmund Head.

Sir,

Treasury Chambers, 24 April 1863.

THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have given careful consideration to your letter of the 27th February last, transmitted by the Chancellor of the Exchequer.

It appears that, after having served from January 1836, first as an Assistant Poor Law Commissioner, and subsequently as a Commissioner, you resigned, or were transferred from that department in the Civil Service on the 20th October 1847, when you were appointed Lieutenant Governor of New Brunswick, and you have since served up to October 1861 as Governor General of British North America and Governor of Canada.

You refer to a Minute of this Board of 13th January 1857, and the 12th clause of the 22 Vict. c. 26, and you state that you are desirous of knowing whether my Lords think you entitled to claim the benefit of the clause at the expiration of a double period of colonial service.

The clause states expressly that the officer claiming superannuation must have been transferred from an office "entitling him to superannuation allowance" to further employment under the Crown not so entitling him; and although it is the case, as stated in your letter, that by the Minute of 1857 a qualified allowance was made to certain officers in the Poor Law Department, yet my Lords can have no doubt that in the year 1847, when you left the department, your employment there had not been one entitling you to superannuation allowance; and they therefore do not consider that they would be warranted, under the 12th clause of the Act of 1859, in recognising your claim.

The Right Hon.
Sir Edmund Head, K.C.B.
&c. &c. &c.

I am, &c.
(signed) F. Peel.

The Right Honourable Sir Edmund Head to the Secretary of the Treasury.

Sir,

Civil Service Commission, 27 April 1863.

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge your letter of 24th April, but I cannot do so without offering some observations on the reasons assigned for the conclusion at which my Lords have arrived with reference to my application of 27th February.

It is said in your letter that, by the Minute of 1857, "a qualified allowance" was made to certain officers in the Poor Law Department; I must be permitted to observe that the Minute referred to not only provides "a qualified allowance" for particular individuals, but states in the most general terms, "My Lords have arrived at the conclusion that they cannot but recognise the right of the officers of that department to some allowance on their retirement."

Nor can it be well supposed that this Minute refers to the department only as it existed in 1857, and not in 1847, since, in that case, the reference to the pensions to Mr. Nicholls and Mr. Chadwick, as "virtually granted for poor law services," would have been wholly irrelevant to the argument. Those gentlemen retired at the same time with myself.

I fully admit, as my Lords are pleased to observe, that when I retired in 1847, I could claim no superannuation allowance; but I conceived that under the Minute of 1857 I had not a claim at the time when the Act of 1859 was passed; and consequently that that statute was applicable to my case. I was led into this error (if it be one) by supposing that the words "entitling to superannuation allowance under this or any other Act" described the general character or quality of the office, and did not require the existence of a specific claim existing in the officer at the time of his transfer under section 12.

I was moreover confirmed in this view by the retrospective character of the 17th section of the Act of 1859, which I did not quote in my former letter, but which contains the following words:—

"Nor shall any person already appointed to any office be held to have served in the permanent Civil Service as aforesaid" (i. e., for the purposes of this Act) "unless such person belongs to a class which is already entitled to superannuation allowance, or to a class in which, if he had been appointed thereto subsequently to the passing of this Act, he would, as holding his appointment directly from the Crown, have become entitled to such allowance."

I thought, and I still think, that, as having held my appointment "directly from the Crown," I must, under the words underlined* above, be deemed, constructively at least, to have served in the permanent Civil Service within the meaning and for the purposes of the Act of 1859.

* Printed in Italics.

I will thank you to submit these observations to my Lords. It may be that they will make no difference in their view of the case, but I am desirous of placing them before them, as showing that the reasons assigned for a refusal do not meet all the grounds on which the application was originally made.

Right Hon. Frederick Peel,
&c. &c. &c.

I have, &c.
(signed) Edmund Head.

The Secretary of the Treasury to the Right Hon. Sir Edmund Head.

Sir,

Treasury Chambers, 17 June 1863.

I AM commanded by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to acquaint you that their Lordships have given every consideration to the reasons urged by you in your letter of 27th April last, with reference to the grant to you of a retiring allowance, but they regret that they are unable to arrive at any other conclusion than that which has been already communicated to you.

Without entering further into the argument, their Lordships wish to observe to you that Mr. Chadwick was awarded a retiring allowance, not under the Superannuation Act, 4 & 5 Will. 4, c. 24, but under 17 & 18 Vict. c. 95, and that in the Minute under which a special provision was directed to be made in the Estimates for the retiring allowance of Mr. Nichols, it is expressly stated that the Poor Law Commission, not being one of the offices added to the Schedule of the Superannuation Act, does not fall within the provisions of that Act.

I am to add, with respect to the latter part of your letter, that it appears to their Lordships that the 17th clause of the Superannuation Act of 1859 applies only to two classes of persons, viz. :

1st. Those hereafter to be appointed ; and,

2d. Those already appointed, and actually holding office in the Civil Service.

Right Hon. Sir Edmund Head, Bart., K. C. B.,
&c. &c. &c.

I am, &c.

COPY of TREASURY MINUTE, dated 13 January 1857.

MY Lords have before them applications from the Poor Law Board for superannuation allowances in favour of Mr. James Hodgkin, lately a clerk in the department, and of Mr. Hall, lately an inspector, both having retired on account of ill health.

These papers having been referred to the Superannuation Committee, they have reported that, inasmuch as the department is not one of those embraced by the Act of 1834, they have no power to grant any pension under that Act. My Lords have therefore now to consider the most equitable course to pursue under these circumstances with regard to this department, and to any others to which that Act does not apply, and from the salaries of which no superannuation abatements have been deducted.

On the one hand, my Lords have reason to believe that, upon the formation of the Poor Law Board, there was some general understanding that the salaries were fixed at somewhat higher rates, from the fact that, by law, the recipients were not entitled to pensions ; but, on the other hand, adverting to the fact of a pension having been granted to Sir G. Nicholl, and to Mr. Chadwick virtually as a poor law officer, and considering the many changes which have taken place since the first formation of the Board for a limited period, all of which have given it more the character of a permanent department, my Lords have arrived at the conclusion that they cannot but recognise the right of the officers of that department to some allowance upon their retirement.

Having carefully considered the principle upon which such pensions should be fixed, my Lords have arrived at the decision that the scale fixed by the Act of 1834 should be adopted, but that the amount so arrived at should be subject to a deduction, accurately calculated as the value of the deductions to which such officers would have been subjected had they been brought under the Act of 1834 ; i. e., that in every case it shall be ascertained what such deductions, had they been made, would have amounted to, and that the value of such a sum in the shape of an annuity, at the age of the officer retiring, shall be ascertained from the actuary of the National Debt Office, and a deduction equivalent thereto be made from the full pension under the Act to which such officer would have been entitled had his salary been subject to such deduction.

Transmit copy of this Minute to the Poor Law Board, and request Mr. Bouverie will furnish this Board with a computation, showing the amount of the deductions which Mr. Hodgkin and Mr. Hall would have contributed from their salaries, had they been placed under the Act of 1834.

Let a copy of this Minute be laid before Parliament.

— No. 1. —

The Secretary of the Treasury to Sir Frederic Rogers.

Sir,

Treasury Chambers, 28 March 1862.

I AM desired by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to state, for the information of the Duke of Newcastle, that their Lordships have come to the conclusion that it will not be expedient to allow the continuance of the present contract for the conveyance of the West India and Brazilian mails beyond the period named in that contract—viz., 1st January 1864; and they have, accordingly, instructed the Postmaster General to give the necessary notice to the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company.

Their Lordships have at the same time authorised the Postmaster General to issue advertisements for tenders for the following services, namely:

1. For a line of packets by the existing routes, modified in accordance with the former proposal of Mr. Trollope, and substituting Antigua for St. Thomas as the first place to be touched, with a branch packet thence to Demerara.
2. For a service in connexion with the Cunard packets at New York or Halifax, terminable at the time to which Sir Samuel Cunard's Contract is limited, or so guarded as not to involve the renewal of that contract.
3. For a service to the Brazils, in the same manner as at present.

The tenders for the West Indies to state the terms both for a fortnightly and a monthly service.

Their Lordships are of opinion that this opportunity should be taken of applying to the several West India Colonies the same rule of contribution towards the cost of the service as is observed in the case of the Australian Colonies—that is, that one-half of the net loss on the conveyance of the mails to and from the British West Indies be borne by those Colonies, according to the proportion which their respective mails bear to the whole of the British West India Mails carried by the Line.

Their Lordships have directed the Postmaster General to furnish them with returns of the correspondence, with a view to the apportionment of the Colonial portion of the subsidy, which shall be forwarded to the Colonial Office, together with the tenders, as soon as they shall have been received by their Lordships.

In the mean time, their Lordships would be glad if the Duke of Newcastle would take such steps as he may consider advisable for acquainting the Colonial Governments with the course which Her Majesty's Government intends to pursue, and ascertaining their views in the matter.

Sir Frederic Rogers to the Secretary of the Treasury.

Sir,

Downing-street, 10 April 1862.

IN reply to your letter of the 28th ult., respecting the inexpediency of continuing the present West India Mail Packet Contract beyond the 1st January 1864, and the measures which it is proposed to adopt with reference to contributions from the West India Colonies, I am directed by the Duke of Newcastle to acquaint you, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, that, before requesting the West Indian Governors to report their opinion upon the course which Her Majesty's Government intend to pursue, His Grace would be glad to learn, as nearly as may be, what would be the quota for the several Colonies.

His Grace apprehends that difficulties might be created by the announcement of demands without some approximate specification of their amount.

The Right Hon. F. Peel, M. P.,
&c. &c. &c.

I am, &c.

The Secretary of the Treasury to Sir Frederic Rogers.

Sir,

Treasury Chambers, 30 May 1862.

I AM desired by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to transmit, for the information of the Duke of Newcastle, and for any observations his Grace may have to offer thereon with reference to the previous letter from this Board and to your letter of the 10th of April, the accompanying copies of a letter from the Postmaster General, dated 15th instant, forwarding for approval forms of tenders and conditions of contract for the West India and Brazil Mail Services, and of its enclosures.

I am to state that my Lords propose to call upon the several Colonies to contribute towards the Colonial moiety of any Contract which may be concluded in pursuance of the tenders about to be invited in the proportions represented by the sums stated in the accompanying return of postage.

As regards Montserrat, Nevis, and St. Kitts, which are omitted from the present scheme, my Lords will be prepared to observe towards those Colonies the same principle as they have recognised in the case of the Australian Colonies, and to contribute one-half the cost of any reasonable service which may be necessary for the conveyance of their mails to and from the nearest station included in the direct route.

Sir Frederic Rogers, Bart.,
&c. &c. &c.

I am, &c.

Enclosure in No. 3.

My Lords,

General Post Office, 15 May 1862.

IN accordance with the instructions given in your Lordships' letter of the 26th March last, I have informed the Directors of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company that it is my intention to give notice at the proper time for terminating on the 1st January 1864 the existing contract with the Company for the conveyance of Her Majesty's Mails between this country and the West Indies and the Brazils.

In the meantime, I have drawn up, and beg to submit for the approval of your Lordships, forms of tender and conditions of contract for the West India Service by two routes—viz., direct from England, and from New York.

I have also prepared similar forms of tender, &c., for the Brazil Mail Service.

By the scheme prepared for the direct route to the West Indies, it is proposed to omit Porto Rico, St. Thomas, St. Kitts, Nevis, and Montserrat, leaving to the respective Governments of those places the duty of providing means for the conveyance of their mails from Antigua.

In the scheme making use of the existing mail packets as far as New York, with a branch to the West Indies, it is proposed to serve Jamaica, New Granada, the Pacific, Cuba, Mexico, and Central America, from New York, and to serve the Windward and Leeward Islands, and British Guiana by branch steamers from Martinique, fitted to the arrival and departure of the new line of French mail packets running between St. Nazaire and Martinique, and to maintain an inter-colonial communication once a month by means of a packet between Jamaica and Antigua.

In conformity with your Lordships' desire, I enclose a statement of the amount of sea postage derived from the correspondence between this country and the several West India Colonies, to enable you to apportion between the Colonies the contribution which you state it is your intention to call upon them to pay towards the expense of the packet service.

The Lords Commissioners of the Treasury.

I have, &c.

— No. 4. —

The Secretary of the Treasury to Sir Frederic Rogers.

Sir,

Treasury Chambers, 11 March 1864.

WITH regard to the letters from this Board of the 28th March and 30th May 1862, in regard to calling upon the several West India Colonies to contribute towards the expense of the Mail Packet Service to those Colonies, I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to state that a new contract having been entered into with the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company for the conveyance of the mails between this country and the West Indies for an annual subsidy of 172,914 l., to take effect from the commencement of the present year; the question has now arisen as to the amount of contribution which the Home Government may fairly call upon the several Colonies to pay, in order to assist in making good, from 1st January last, the still very considerable loss which the service occasions.

I am at the same time to transmit to you copy of a letter from the Postmaster General, dated 26th ultimo, together with copy of the statement prepared by the Receiver and Accountant General of the Post Office enclosed therein; and I am to request that, in laying the same before the Duke of Newcastle, you will intimate to his Grace that my Lords concur in the proposal of Lord Stanley of Alderley, that the Colonies should only be called upon to contribute towards making good the loss on that portion of the service in which they are directly concerned; and with regard to that portion of the service which extends beyond the Colonies, such as the service from St. Thomas to Mexico, and from Jamaica to Colon, the Home Government should take upon itself the whole of the loss occasioned thereby.

From the statement transmitted, the Duke of Newcastle will observe that, whilst the whole loss which it is estimated will be occasioned by the general service to the West Indies, during the year 1864, amounts to 115,058 l., the amount which the Colonies are called upon to contribute towards making good such loss is only 37,554 l., leaving the sum of 77,504 l. chargeable to the Home Government on account of such general service.

The cost of the Supplementary Lines between Turk's Island and St. Thomas, St. Kitts and Montserrat, and Kingston and Belize, will be 9,676 l.

It is proposed, as the Duke of Newcastle is aware, that a proportion of the service between Kingston and Belize shall be borne by the Colony of Honduras. If the amount of this proportion be deducted from the total sum of 9,676 l., and if the remainder be added to the sum of 77,504 l., the total thus found will be the estimated loss to the United Kingdom, in 1864, on the General and Supplementary West Indian Services.

My Lords therefore request that the Duke of Newcastle will cause the necessary instructions to be given to the Governments of the several Colonies, with a view to steps being taken by them for the payment of their respective contributions towards making good the loss occasioned by the Packet Service in question.

I am to add that, in accordance with the suggestion of the Postmaster General, it will be necessary that the payments to be made by the several Colonies should be made not later than the 30th of June next, and the corresponding payments not later than the same day in each succeeding year.

Sir F. Rogers, Bart.,
&c. &c. &c.

I am, &c.
(signed) F. Peel.

Enclosure in No. 4.

My Lords,

General Post Office, 26 February 1864.

IN approving of the new conditions of contract for the West India Mail Service, your Lordships informed me that it was your intention to communicate with Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies, with the view of establishing the same system of half contribution on the part of the West India Colonies towards the expense of the Packet Service as exists in the Australian service; and, in accordance with your desire, I furnished your Lordships, on the 15th May 1862, with a statement of the amount of sea postage derived derived from the correspondence between this country and the several West India Colonies, to enable you to apportion among the Colonies the contribution which they should be called upon to pay towards the expense of the packets.

It was subsequently, however, found necessary, in order to carry your decision into effect, to make a calculation of the loss—first, on that portion of the service in which the West India Colonies are directly concerned; and, secondly, on that portion which extends beyond the Colonies, such as the service from St. Thomas to Mexico and from Jamaica to Colon.

I propose to divide the loss, on the portion of the service first mentioned, equally between the Colonies and this country, but that this country shall take the whole of the second loss on itself.

Proceeding on this principle, it is estimated that the total loss falling on this country from the West India Service in the current year will be 77,504 l., and on the Colonies 37,554 l.

Although the loss will still be very large, it is satisfactory to know that it will be much less than it was under the old contract, and with a postage of only sixpence the half-ounce letter.

In the year 1862, when both these causes of deficiency were in operation, the loss was as much as 194,000 l.; and even last year, with a higher postage (by packet), but with the old contract still in force, it was 181,000 l.: the whole loss in both cases falling on this country.

It will be seen, therefore, that in the present year there will be a total saving of 79,000 l. as compared with the year 1862, and of 66,000 l. as compared with last year; while this country, instead of having to bear a loss of 194,000 l., as in 1862, and of 181,000 l., as last year, will lose only 77,504 l.

In apportioning the Colonial part of the loss between the different Colonies, the rule adopted has been similar to that which now regulates the payments of the Australian Colonies—viz., that of a combined consideration of distance and number of letters.

The result is exhibited in the enclosed statement, which has been prepared by the Receiver and Accountant General of this Department.

I submit that the Colonies should be required to make their respective payments not later than the 30th June next, and to make corresponding payments not later than the same day in each succeeding year.

If your Lordships approve of the foregoing recommendations, I request you will be good enough to write to the Duke of Newcastle, asking his Grace to communicate with the West India Colonies on this subject.

The Lords Commissioners of the Treasury.

I have, &c.
(signed) Stanley of Alderley.

AN ESTIMATE of the Total Amount of Sea Postage that will be Earned by the West Indian Packets in the Year 1864, including Inter-Colonial Postage, and of the whole Loss on the Service to be divided between the Mother Country and the Colonies:—

The total cost of the General Service will be	-	-	-	-	-	£. 172,914
From which must be deducted the estimated earnings for Sea Postage						57,856
Leaving a Total Loss of	-	-	-	-	-	£. 115,058
Of which the West Indian Colonies will be expected to bear	-	-	-	-	-	37,554
So that the loss to the United Kingdom will be	-	-	-	-	-	£. 77,504

The cost of the Supplementary Lines between Turk's Island and St. Thomas, St. Kitts and Montserrat, and Kingston and Belize, will be 9,676 l.

It is proposed that a proportion of the cost of the service between Kingston and Belize, the amount of which proportion has not yet been determined, shall be borne by the Colony of Honduras. If the amount of this proportion can be estimated and deducted from the total sum of 9,676 l., and if the remainder be added to the sum of 77,504 l., the total thus formed will be the estimated loss to the United Kingdom, in 1864, on the General and Supplementary West Indian Services.

CIRCULAR to Governors of the West Indian Colonies.

Sir,

Downing-street, 15 July 1862.

I HAVE to inform you that it is the intention of Her Majesty's Government to terminate the existing Contract for the carriage of Mails to the West Indies, and to invite fresh tenders for that service.

On this subject I shall probably have occasion to address you before long in some detail.

In the meantime, however, I think it advisable to communicate to you an extract from a letter addressed by the Postmaster General to the Lords of the Treasury, and of the forms of tender and conditions of contract referred to in that letter.

I shall be much obliged to you if, at your earliest convenience, you will favour me with such observations as you may wish to be considered by Her Majesty's Government in connexion with the tenders when they are received; and in furnishing them I wish you to bear in mind the probability that Her Majesty's Government will require that the loss attendant on this service (as on the postal services of other Colonies) should be shared between the Imperial and the Colonial treasuries.

You will also understand that these papers are merely sent to explain to you the present intentions of Her Majesty's Government, which it may become necessary or advisable to vary materially.

I have, &c.

(No. 168.)

DESPATCH from Governor Keate to the Duke of Newcastle, K.G.

My Lord Duke,

Trinidad, 18 September 1862.

1. I HAVE had the honour to receive your Grace's circular Despatch of the 15th July last, informing me that it is the intention of Her Majesty's Government to terminate the existing Contract for the carriage of Mails to the West Indies, and to invite fresh tenders for that service.

2. Before committing to paper any observations of my own upon the forms of tender and proposed conditions of contract, referred to in the extract from a letter addressed by the Postmaster General to the Lords of the Treasury, communicated to me in that Despatch, I thought it right to endeavour to ascertain the views of the colonists on the subject, and especially of those engaged in commerce. With this object I furnished copies of your Grace's circular, and of its enclosures, to the principal mercantile firms in the island, and requested to be furnished with any remarks they might wish to make upon them. I enclose the copy of a letter from the chairman of a meeting held at the Town Hall to consider the subject, and of a minute of its proceedings, which have been transmitted to me. I have received letters from others not present at the meeting, but as they are to much the same effect, I need not trouble your Grace with them.

3. The question touched upon in these communications, whether it is desirable in a political point of view to rely upon foreign ports and upon ships sailing under a foreign flag, for the conveyance of mails to this island, is scarcely one for the consideration of the local Government. The relative cheapness of the two routes concerns it more, if, as your Grace informs me is probable, the local Treasury is to be called upon to bear its share of the loss attendant on the service; but this can only be ascertained by the result of the call for tenders. It will be more immediately to the purpose to inquire into the relative convenience of the two routes, so far as concerns Trinidad, irrespectively of other considerations.

4. Though

Mr. Alex. Stewart.
4 Sept. 1862.

4. Though the conveyance of the mails is the primary object to be looked to, the passenger and goods traffic cannot be entirely left out of sight, if only because the amount of subsidy demanded must depend, in some measure, on the other sources of gain open to the contractors. In the project for making use of the existing mail packets as far as New York, a fortnightly steamer is to run between Antigua and Martinique, and another between the latter place and Trinidad, while there is to be communication once a month between New York and Antigua, so that Trinidad would probably still have a bi-monthly post, one viâ Antigua, Jamaica, and New York; the other, viâ St. Nazaire. The course of post, by the former, would necessarily be longer than by the route now used; while, by the latter, it would probably be about the same. The inequality in the length of the two routes would prevent the bi-monthly arrival and departure of the mails taking place at equal intervals, which alone would produce inconvenience; but when the goods and passenger traffic for which the present steamers are used, is taken into consideration, the difference between the facilities offered by the existing service and those which would still remain under the projected scheme, becomes so marked that great distaste to it is naturally evinced in this community. Goods as well as passengers would have to go round by New York or through France, entailing, as regards goods, a great diminution of trade, and a deficiency in the special supplies looked for through the steamers; and as regards passengers, increased expense, discomfort, and fatigue.

5. While this project opens to this island a prospect of delay, inconvenience, and expense, whether as regards the postal service or the goods and passenger traffic, the alternative scheme offers to it greater advantages, in both these respects, than it enjoys even under the existing contract. The substitution of Antigua for St. Thomas, as the station from which the steamers to the Leeward and Windward Islands branch off, would necessarily accelerate the course of post to Trinidad, and make the route for goods and passengers to and from England as expeditious, because as nearly direct as possible. If, whatever objections they may naturally urge against it, the inhabitants of the island are to be called upon to bear a portion of the loss, if any, attendant on the service, it would at least be desirable that they should pay for a route which would suit their convenience, not only for the receipt and dispatch of their mails, but for the purposes of trade and travel.

6. It is difficult to say anything with regard to this payment by the local Treasury, until it is ascertained, approximatively at least, what its amount will be; but it has been suggested that an additional rate of postage to be collected here, both on outgoing and incoming letters, would afford aid towards meeting the outlay.

7. Some little time ago, a petition was presented to the Legislative Council of the island, and transmitted to your Grace, in my Despatch, No. 86, of the 28th April last, praying for a grant towards steam communication with the neighbouring ports of Venezuela. On this point, as connected with the general question of the steam service, I would beg leave to refer your Grace to some observations made by my predecessor, Sir Charles Elliot, in his report on the Blue Book for 1855. I annex an extract from that Report.

8. There is only one other matter which seems to call for comment. I observe that in both forms of tender, the rate of passage for Government officers is assimilated to that of ordinary passengers. There are, no doubt, good reasons for this departure from the terms of the existing contract; but I may venture to call your Grace's attention to the fact that the present arrangement has operated as a great boon to public servants in these tropical regions, the climate of which renders an occasional visit to Europe almost a necessity to most constitutions. There are those amongst them whose means are so slender that this privilege alone renders it possible for them to obtain that change which, in many instances, is absolutely requisite to the maintenance of health.

I have, &c.

Enclosure 1, in No. 6.

Mr. Stewart to Sir C. Cuyler.

Sir,

Trinidad, 4 September 1862.

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge receipt of your circular of the 27th ultimo, relative to the Transatlantic Mail Service.

It was deemed better to furnish his Excellency the Governor with the collective views of the mercantile portion of the community, and with a view to this object a meeting was held yesterday in the Town-hall.

I have now the honour to enclose a minute of the proceedings, and am,

Sir, &c.

(signed) Alex. Stewart,
Chairman.

The Hon. Sir Charles Cuyler, Bart.

Port of Spain, Trinidad.

At a Meeting held at the Town-hall, on Wednesday, 3d September 1862,

Present:

Mr. Ambard.
Mr. Bernard.
Mr. Caird.
Mr. Clairmonte.
Mr. Douglas.
Mr. Feez.
Mr. Knowles.
Mr. Law.

Mr. D. L. O'Connor.
Mr. William Ross.
Honourable F. J. Scott.
Mr. T. F. Stuart.
Mr. Stewart.
Mr. Stallmeyer.
Dr. De Vertenil.

Mr. Stewart was called to the chair, and Mr. Knowles requested to act as Secretary.

The Chairman stated that the object of the meeting was to take into consideration the Governor's Circular of the 27th ultimo, together with the Enclosures which accompanied it, respecting the Transatlantic Mail Service, and as he presumed that all present had had an opportunity of making themselves acquainted with the contents of the documents to which he referred, he would be glad to hear the views of the gentlemen present.

Several gentlemen having spoken on the subject for the discussion of which the meeting was convened, the opinion was general that the continuance of the present fortnightly communication should be strongly urged; and it was a source of much gratification, and, in the event of war, would contribute considerably to lessen the risk attending the mail service; that the first port of landing in the West Indies should be a British Colony, Antigua being such, and from its central position the meeting was glad to find that island named as the place from which the intercolonial mail communication will branch off.

On the other hand, however, the meeting viewed with regret that one of the schemes suggested by the Postmaster General for serving the Windward and Leeward Islands and British Guiana is "by branch steamers from Martinique, fitted to the arrival and departure of the new line of French mail packets running between St. Nazaire and Martinique," as, apart from the fact of the heavy and valuable amount of correspondence which, if that line is adopted, will be entrusted entirely to the custody of a foreign flag (of itself undesirable, in a political point of view), it is opening an unfair competition against British steamship owners, as, from the immense subsidy which the French mail steamers receive from their Government, it follows that they can afford to accept a much smaller rate of remuneration for conveying the British mails to and from the West Indies than English steamers receiving a subsidy from the British Government only, without any other guaranteed source of revenue.

On the question that Her Majesty's Government will probably require "that the loss attendant on the West India Mail Service should be shared between the Imperial and Colonial Treasuries," it was the unanimous opinion of the meeting that the financial position and prospects of the island do not admit of any contribution being made towards the loss arising out of the West India Mail Service.

The Chairman was then requested to communicate to his Excellency the Governor what has taken place at the meeting.

(signed) Thomas Knowles, Secretary.

Enclosure 2, in No. 6.

EXTRACT from Governor Sir Charles Elliot's Report on the Blue Book for 1855, dated 20 August 1856.

WHEN the contract was renewed with the West India Packet Company, I have always thought it was to be regretted that they were not required to maintain a bi-monthly communication in a screw propeller of a convenient size, so as to carry some amount of cargo between this Colony and Porto Cabello, touching at La Guayra, and by powerful light draught paddle vessels from hence up the Orinoco, in the first place as high as Angostina, and gradually, as encouragement offered, still higher. That such a line would not have paid at first is of course most probable; but that it would do so eventually can scarcely be doubted. It is important to the commercial interests of the Empire that we should avail ourselves of the favourable position of this island for taking our part in the steam navigation of this mighty highway into the neighbouring regions of the South American Continent. If that enterprise offers sufficient encouragement to spirited and far-seeing merchants settled in the United States, it should surely do so, under proper management, from this advantageously-situated depôt for such a trade, and for the repairs of vessels engaged in it. This subject is well worthy of steady pursuit by all parties engaged in the trade and steam navigation of these regions.

DESPATCH from Lieutenant Governor Eyre to the Duke of Newcastle, K.G.

King's House, Jamaica,
22 September 1862.

My Lord Duke,

WITH reference to your Grace's circular Despatch of the 15th July, I have now the honour to transmit a Despatch from Lieutenant Governor Seymour, stating that, in his opinion, the proposed carriage of the mails to and from Belize by way of Antigua, appears to him to be satisfactory, and that he thinks the Legislative Assembly would be prepared to share with the Imperial Government the loss attendant on that service.

Enclosure in No. 7.

(British Honduras, No. 105.)

From Lieutenant Governor Seymour to Lieutenant Governor Eyre.

Sir,

Belize, 16 August 1862.

I HAVE had the honour to receive, through your hands, the Secretary of State's circular Despatch of the 15th July, on the subject of the new arrangements proposed to be made for the carriage of mails between Great Britain and the West Indies.

2. His Grace desires to be furnished with such observations as I, as an Administrator of a West Indian Government, may wish to be considered by Her Majesty's Government, in connection with the tenders about to be invited for this service.

3. I have only to say that the arrangements proposed to be made for the carriage of the mails to and from Belize, by way of Antigua, appear to me to be satisfactory, and I think that the Legislative Assembly would be prepared to share with the Imperial Government the loss attendant on this service.

4. As it appears to me that troubles of the most serious description are in store for Central America, I very much doubt the prudence of making the postal communication between British Honduras and the mother country pass through New York, and I may add that I have little hopes of getting any assistance from the Legislature of this Colony for such a route.

I have, &c.

DESPATCH from Governor Hamilton to the Duke of Newcastle, K.G.Leeward Islands, Antigua, 23 September 1862.

My Lord Duke,

I HAVE the honour to enclose a Despatch from President Longden, respecting the proposed postal arrangements for the West Indies as they affect the Virgin Islands. I also enclose the duplicate of a Despatch, addressed by President Sir Arthur Rumbold to your Grace, dated the 11th instant, with a minute of the Executive Council of Nevis of that date, on the subject of the postal arrangements by which the islands of Nevis, Montserrat, and Saint Kitts will be required to provide for the conveyance of their mails to and from Antigua.

2. Although those communities may cheerfully contribute their proper proportion of expense in the maintenance of a Government plan for the conveyance of their mails, it is apprehended that no practical postal measure will be effected by those islands, unless the service is exclusively entrusted to the control of Government.

3. The disunion between the inhabitants of the several smaller islands renders this apprehension well-founded.

4. Assuming that the islands of Montserrat, Nevis, and Saint Kitts, which are contiguous to each other, will have to provide for their postal communications to and from Antigua, it is expedient that a plan, devised by the Postmaster General, with the proportion of expense to be borne by each island, should be submitted to the Legislatures of the three islands for adoption, in order to obtain the necessary grant of money to be made by each island for the service, such service being executed by or under the control of the Postmaster General or the Governor in Chief. The population, revenue, and annual postage of the several islands would supply data for the scheme to be proposed for their acceptance.

5. It is not to be expected that this service can be effected by a steamer exclusively used for the purpose, which would entail a cost that the islands could not contribute, unless the Island of St. Thomas concurred in the scheme. The small steamer belonging to Sir William Codrington, now engaged in the postal line, would be inadequate for this service.

6. The postal communications with the Virgin Islands would be kept up, as suggested by President Longden, through St. Thomas.

7. If any island should withhold its assent from the Government plan, that island would exclude itself from the benefit of such plan.

8. I have forwarded a copy of this Despatch to the officers administering the Government of Montserrat, Nevis, Saint Kitts, and the Virgin Islands.

I have, &c.

His Grace the Duke of Newcastle, K.G.,

Enclosure 1, in No. 8.

(Virgin Islands, No. 27.)

President Longden to Governor Hamilton.

Sir,

Government House, Tortola, 9 September 1862.

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge your Excellency's circular, dated 6th August 1862, enclosing one from the Secretary of State, dated 15th July, transmitting the forms of tender and other papers, relative to the future postal arrangements between the United Kingdom and the West Indies, and desiring any remarks that may be made upon them.

2. Owing to its proximity to St. Thomas's, this Colony has hitherto enjoyed very great advantages

Sir Arthur Rumbold to Governor Hamilton, Nevis, No. 65.
15 Sept. 1862.

advantages in the receipt and dispatch of mails, without contributing in any way to the expense of the mail packets, beyond the insignificant amount of postage collected on the letters and papers. These advantages will necessarily cease with the removal of the general dépôt from St. Thomas. But in the impoverished state of this Colony, it is utterly impossible for this Government to contribute to the maintenance of the mail packets, and it must therefore acquiesce in any arrangement that may be adopted.

3. I would, however, beg your Excellency to urge upon the General Post Office, through the Secretary of State, that the Mails for the Virgin Islands should, upon the completion of the new arrangements, be sent, as now, to St. Thomas's, leaving it to the Colony to provide for their conveyance from St. Thomas to Tortola. This latter service is at present included in the general contract of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company.

4. The contemplated arrangements will cause a great change in the trade and pursuits of the inhabitants of these islands, a change that may, by wise management on the part of the owners of estates here, go far to restore to Tortola the prosperity she enjoyed in former years, the only evidences of which now are the ruins of the old planters' houses and works. A large amount of labour, chiefly furnished from Tortola, will be at once disengaged, and as the demand for provisions, &c. at St. Thomas's decreases, the present trade in stock will cease to be profitable, and the old cane fields which have been thrown into pasture, will only yield a profit if planted again in exportable produce, such as cotton or sugar. I only allude to this now without going into the question in detail, as I presume the Secretary of State's circular is only intended to refer to considerations of postal convenience.

My Lord Duke, Queen's House, Nevis, 11 September 1862.
I HAVE the honour, at the request of the Executive Council, to forward direct to your Grace the accompanying Minute of Council.

2. I would humbly express my own conviction, that the apprehensions entertained by the Council are not unfounded, for I fear that if this Colony be deprived of direct communication with the seat of the general Government under Imperial control, her material interests will suffer very seriously.

His Grace the Duke of Newcastle, K. G.,
&c. &c. &c.

I have, &c.
(signed) Arthur Rumbold.

Council Chamber, 11 September 1862.

MINUTE.

"LAID before the Board by the President, Sir Arthur Rumbold, Bart., a Despatch from His Excellency the Governor in Chief, dated 6 August, conveying a Despatch from His Grace the Secretary of State for the Colonies, dated July 15th, on the subject of the intentions expressed by Her Majesty's Government to terminate the existing contract for the carriage of mails to the West Indies, and to invite fresh tenders for that service; with an extract of a letter from the Postmaster General to the Lords of the Treasury on the same subject, accompanied by a form of the proposed tender in reference thereto, requesting to be furnished with such observations as it may be necessary to submit for the consideration of Her Majesty's Government in connexion with such contract.

"The Executive Council observes, with much regret, that by the scheme prepared for the direct route to the West Indies, it is proposed to omit, among others, the Islands of St. Kitts, Nevis, and Montserrat, leaving to the respective Governments of these islands the duty of providing means for the conveyance of their mails to and from Antigua.

"The accomplishment of this object by the agency of the Governments of the islands above mentioned cannot fail, in the opinion of the Executive Council, to be embarrassed by difficulties of a very grave character. It must be obvious that, at least, the smaller communities of Nevis and Montserrat could not endure, without serious abstraction from their revenues, the expense of providing separate bi-monthly conveyances for their respective mails. And it may be feared that complicated obstacles would be found to exist in realising the design of effecting a conjoint contract between the Governments of the three islands, and any person who might be willing to engage in undertaking the regular mail duty.

"Under such apprehensions, which the Executive Council is persuaded are well-founded, there appears to be no other resource but that this Board should respectively move Sir Arthur Rumbold to impress very earnestly on Her Majesty's Government the serious difficulties and inconvenience that would result from the omission of St. Kitts, Nevis, and Montserrat, from the route of the mail vessels in Government employ. Should it be found that the course at present pursued for the conveyance of the mails to and from the three islands would be inconsistent with the future arrangements of Government, the Executive Council would desire to express their opinion that no postal measures can be expected to be practically successful, as regards especially the smaller islands, unless such measures be effected exclusively under Government control. The Executive Council laments the necessity, as announced by the Secretary of State, of rescinding the arrangements which at present exist for the conveyance of the mails in reference to this and the neighbouring islands, and would entertain the hope that such necessity may finally be found to be remediable. But if the abolition of the present system should be found to be unavoidable, this Board would look for a want of regularity, and for constant disappointment and failure in any local arrangements that might be made between contractors and the island authorities, and is persuaded that this, as well as other communities, will cheerfully contribute their respective proportions of expense in maintaining a Government establishment for the conveyance of their mails.

"That, in order to put the Secretary of State in possession of the views of the Executive Council as early as practicable, President Sir Arthur Rumbold, Bart., be requested to forward to his Grace direct, and by the present mail, a copy of the above Minute."

CIRCULAR.

The Duke of Newcastle, K.G., to Lieutenant Governor Eyre.

Sir,

Downing-street, 26 March 1864.

WITH reference to that part of my Circular Despatch of 15th July 1862, in which I intimated the probability of the West India Colonies being called upon to share with the Imperial Treasury the loss attendant upon the Mail Packet Service, I transmit to you, for the consideration of the Legislature of the Colony under your Government, the copy of a letter from the office of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, with copies of its enclosures, relative to the amount of contribution expected from each Colony.

I have, &c.
(signed) Newcastle.

— No. 10. —

(Jamaica, No. 135.)

DESPATCH from Lieutenant Governor Eyre to the Duke of Newcastle, K. G.

My Lord Duke,

King's House, 23 April 1864.

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your Grace's Circular Despatch of the 26th ultimo, transmitting, for the consideration of the Legislature of this Colony, the copy of a letter from the office of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, with copies of its enclosures, relative to the amount of contribution to mail packet service expected from each Colony.

2. The former correspondence on this subject (circular of 15th July 1862) was duly 11 March 1864.

are printed at

Return.

duly laid before the House of Assembly on the 12th of November 1862, and I will duly submit to its consideration the papers now forwarded when next a House is formed.

3. At the same time, I think it only right to acquaint your Grace, without any delay, of the strong conviction I entertain that the Legislature of Jamaica will not acquiesce in the proposition that it should pay a sum of eleven thousand six hundred and thirty-four pounds (11,634 l.) per annum as its share of the contribution towards making good the loss sustained by the West India Mail Packet Service.

4. The points which I have no doubt will be urged when the subject comes to be considered will be—First, that the Colony is too poor at present to be able to provide so very large an annual payment, and at a short notice; for it must be remembered that, although the probability of such a contingency was brought to the notice of the Legislature nearly eighteen (18) months ago, there were then no data given from which to estimate the possible proportion that might be assigned to Jamaica.

It is an undeniable fact that the revenue of the Colony is not equal to meeting the ordinary provision which requires to be made for the public service.

Annually, as portions of old loans are paid off, fresh loans are contracted for the construction of roads and bridges, and for erecting or reinstating public buildings.

At the same time, the duties upon imports into the country are very high; upon unenumerated articles twelve-and-a-half (12½) per cent., and upon rated goods occasionally much more.

Secondly, I have reason to suppose it will be urged, that as there is now in full operation a regular line of steam packets established to Jamaica from Liverpool twice a month, it would be practicable to get the Jamaica mails carried by that line for a subsidy not exceeding half of the sum proposed by the Postmaster General to be charged against Jamaica on account of the contract with the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company.

5. There can be no doubt but that the connexion of Jamaica with England and with the other Colonies, by means of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company, is an immense advantage to the Colony, and is highly valued by the inhabitants generally, who would indeed deeply deplore the occurrence of any circumstance which might exclude Jamaica from that advantage.

Still I do not myself see how the Colony is, at present, to raise so large an additional amount of taxation as would be necessary to meet this heavy claim, and I have thought it right at once to make your Grace acquainted with my views.

6. I will not fail to communicate to your Grace the earliest possible intimation of any action which may be taken by the Legislature when these papers are laid before it for consideration.

His Grace the Duke of Newcastle, K. G.,
&c. &c. &c.

I have, &c.
(signed) E. Eyre.

REPORT of the COMMISSIONERS of AUDIT, dated 29 January 1864.

(No. 43.)

My Lords,

Audit Office, Somerset House, London, w. c.,
29 January 1864.

IN pursuance of the 39th section of the 14 & 15 Vict. c. 42, we have the honour to transmit copies of Abstract Accounts, showing the Receipt and Expenditure of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, for the year ended 31st March 1863.

The only portions of the Expenditure by the Commissioners of Woods defrayed out of Grants of Parliament, are the "Salaries and Expenses in the Office of Woods," and "Landed Estates Record Office in London."

The Grants of Parliament for the year 1862-3 in respect of these Services, being for the first time made "to defray the charge which will come in course of payment during the year," we observed in our Report of 21st January 1863, on the Account 1861-2, that the Balances unexpended on 31st March 1862, amounting to 2,695 l. 0 s. 11 d. and 289 l. 3 s. 5 d. respectively, remained to be surrendered to the Exchequer.

These Balances have, however, been brought forward, and taken into account in the Account now submitted, and we beg leave to refer to the observations on this subject in our Report upon the Accounts of the Board of Works for 1862-3.

The Expenditure for "Salaries and Expenses in the Office of Woods,"	£.	s.	d.
in the year 1862-3, was	-	-	-
The Vote for the year was	-	-	-
	28,431	3	4
	26,138	-	-
Expenditure more than Voted	-	-	-
	£. 2,293	3	4

For which excess of Expenditure, we apprehend that a Supplementary Vote will have to be taken.

With respect to "Landed Estate Record Offices," the Commissioners of Woods account for only that portion of the Vote which relates to the "Office in London."

	£.	s.	d.
The Expenditure for the "Office in London," in the year 1862-3, was	-	1,416	1 -
The amount stated in the Estimate as applicable to that Office is	-	1,150	- -
Excess of Expenditure over the Estimate	-	£. 266	1 -

As the Sum accounted for by the Commissioners of Woods is only a portion of the Vote, a comparison of the Expenditure with the whole of the Vote cannot be made in their Account.

We have further to state that there are some questions which remain for adjustment on the audit of the Cash Accounts, and also in respect of the Rentals.

We have, &c.

AUDITORS' REPORT.

(No. 47.)

Audit Office, Somerset House, London, W. C.,
30 January 1864.

My Lords,

IN pursuance of the 39th section of the 14 & 15 Vict. c. 42, we have the honour to transmit copies of the Abstract Accounts of Receipt and Expenditure of the Moneys granted, or otherwise received and appropriated in the Department under the control and management of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, in the year ended 31st March 1863.

1. The Grants of Parliament for the year 1862-3 in respect of the services under the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works, being for the first time made "to defray the charges which will come in course of payment during the year," we submitted, in our Report to your Lordships of 31st January 1863, a statement of the Balances of former Grants unexpended on the 31st March 1862, and remaining to be surrendered to the Exchequer, amounting in the whole (after deducting certain estimated surpluses, amounting to 55,000*l.*) to 518,110*l.* 18*s.* 8*d.*

2. These Balances are, however, brought forward in the Account now submitted; and credit is taken for the repayment to the Exchequer of some of them, and of portions of others. We enclose a Statement (No. 1), showing the Balances as referred to in our Report of 31st January 1863; the Amounts repaid to the Exchequer, viz., 152,400*l.*; and the Amounts remaining on 31st March 1863, viz., 365,710*l.* 18*s.* 8*d.*

3. In adverting to our Report of the 31st January 1863 (Parliamentary Paper, No. 182, 1863), it is necessary we should observe that, in a letter addressed to your Lordships by the First Commissioner of Works, and referred to us by your Lordships, the First Commissioner states that he considers certain expressions contained in that Report "calculated to produce erroneous impressions," and that some of the statements therein are inaccurate. It is under these circumstances that we transmit herewith a copy of that communication and of our Report thereon.

4. We, moreover, transmit a Statement (No. 2), showing how far the Expenditure in 1862-3 has fallen short of or exceeded the Grants for that year (after taking into account the probable surpluses, amounting to 55,000*l.*, before referred to); and a Statement (No. 3) of Expenditure in 1862-3, for services for which there were no Grants of Parliament for that year—the Expenditure having been made out of the Balances of Grants for former years.

5. With reference to these Statements (Nos. 2 and 3), we apprehend that 4,828*l.* 12*s.* 3*d.*, being the aggregate of savings on certain Votes, should be surrendered to the Exchequer; and that as regards 173,937*l.* 13*s.* 6*d.*, being the aggregate amount of Expenditure more than voted and not voted, Votes will have to be taken under the proper heads of service for that amount.

6. There are certain sums brought to credit, and applied in aid of five of the Votes respectively. We submit that these sums are payable into the Exchequer, as Extra Receipts. We enclose a List (No. 4) of them, amounting in the whole to 529*l.* 11*s.* 8*d.*

7. In connection with the foregoing observations, it may be proper to remark that this Account is not prepared on the same plan which is followed in framing the Appropriation Accounts of those Votes which are taken upon the principle of providing for the Expenditure coming in course of payment within the year to which the Account relates. The practice with respect to such Accounts is to regard each Vote as the subject of a separate Account. No Balances are brought forward; and while the "Charge" side of the Account consists exclusively of the sums granted by Parliament for the Expenditure of the year, the "Discharge" side is confined to service payments. Such is the course followed by the War Office, the Admiralty, the Post Office, the Board of Customs, and the Board of Inland Revenue. In the Account of the Works Department, however, the sums brought to credit include, besides the Grants of Parliament, the Balances on previous Grants and, in some few instances, Receipts from other sources than Parliament; whilst credit has been occasionally taken for the sums surrendered to the Exchequer in respect of previous Grants, as well as for sums which are regarded as properly chargeable to the Grants for 1862-63. We may add that, according to the practice followed by the War Office and Admiralty, Parliament is informed, by a memorandum affixed to the Accounts of those Departments, as to the mode in which the Balances on previous Accounts have been adjusted.

8. The items in the Account to which we have to advert are as follows:

PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

9. Having observed that in the course of alterations in the works in Orange-street for the supply of water to the Fountains in Trafalgar Square, additional pipes were required, and that "150 feet of old 10-inch pipes out of use at Kensington" were applied to the purpose of the Waterworks, we transmitted a query to the Accountants as to the fund out of which those pipes were purchased, and we have been informed that they were bought before the Vote for Royal Parks came into use, and while the Parks were maintained out of the Land Revenue.

of

10. Materials purchased out of the Land Revenue have thus been applied to a service provided for by Vote of Parliament. We conceive, however, that a value should have been put upon the pipes in question, and the amount paid into the Exchequer.

11. The following charges are also made against the Vote for Public Buildings, viz.:

Transfers to—

Law Courts Concentration - - - - -	£2,655 19s. 8d.
Site of Burlington House - - - - -	105 - - -

12. The sum of 105*l.* was paid in the course of the year 1859-60, and was included in the Accounts laid before Parliament for that year amongst the Special Accounts for services unconnected with Votes of Parliament. Of the sum of 2,655*l.* 19*s.* 8*d.*, the sum of 959*l.* 2*s.* only has been expended within the year 1862-63. The remainder was expended in 1860-61 and 1861-62, the Expenditure not being charged against the Votes for those years, but being also included amongst the Special Accounts. It thus appears that while no more than 959*l.* 2*s.* has come in course of payment in respect of the "Law Courts Concentration" within the period of this Account, the Expenditure in respect of this service, as well as the 105*l.* in respect of the Burlington site, has not hitherto been treated as chargeable to the Votes. Under these circumstances we do not see any ground for admitting, as properly chargeable to the Vote, more than the sum of 959*l.* 2*s.*, and have accordingly deducted the remaining sums from the Expenditure as shown in Statement No. 2.

ROYAL PARKS AND GARDENS.

13. Your Lordships have been pleased to grant a pension of 20*l.* per annum to Flora Lucas, daughter of one of the keepers in Richmond Park, and to direct the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works to pay it out of the Vote for the Royal Parks and Pleasure Gardens, provision for the same being made in the future annual Estimates.

14. We have to observe that the Vote for Superannuation Allowances includes pensions to widows of gamekeepers in the Royal Parks, formerly paid out of Land Revenue; and we have thought it right to notice the circumstance of this pension being paid out of the Vote for Royal Parks.

BRITISH EMBASSY HOUSES ABROAD.

15. Constantinople.—Repaid to the War Department, expenses incurred in 1856 in rebuilding the Embassy Chapel at Constantinople, and repairing the Ambassador's quarters at Therapia, 668*l.* 12*s.*

The Hague.—Amount issued to Sir Andrew Buchanan for the interior repairs of the house taken for the purposes of the Legation, 1,500*l.*

16. These sums were transferred under your Lordships' directions by the Paymaster General; and the Expenditure not having been made by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works, vouchers for the same have not been produced to us. As we have no evidence before us to show that these sums are chargeable to the Vote, they have been deducted from the Expenditure shown in Statement No. 2.

17. We have to add that there are questions remaining for adjustment in the Cash Accounts; and that this Account includes Expenditure, with reference to which doubts have arisen as to whether it does not require to be supported by Treasury authority. It also includes Expenditure which does in our opinion require such authority, and which ought only to be finally admitted as a charge against the Votes when sanctioned by your Lordships. The final adjustment of these questions must, we apprehend, be contingent on the decision which your Lordships may come to on our Reports to your Lordships of 18th December 1863, No. 414, and 15th instant, No. 9.

We have, &c.

LETTERS referred to in preceding Report,—Paragraph 3.

My Lords,

Office of Works, &c., S.W., 2 July 1863.

THE Report of the Commissioners of Audit upon the accounts of this department for the year 1861-2, recently printed by Order of the House of Commons, contains expressions calculated to produce erroneous impressions. I had no opportunity of pointing out the inaccuracy of the statement before it was made public, and I now call your Lordships' attention to the following passage: The Commissioners say, "In the Appropriation Act, 1862, the Grants of Parliament for the year 1862-3, in respect of this Service, are for the first time made 'to defray the charges which will come in course of payment during the year.' In the Estimates submitted to Parliament for the year 1862-3, the amount of the probable surpluses on the grants of former years, have (as in the previous year) been deducted from the gross amount required for the service of the year, and the net amount only has been voted."

"The anticipated surpluses are stated at 55,000*L.*, but the actual surpluses, as shewn in the enclosed statement, were 573,110 L. 18*s.* 8*d.*"

"If, therefore, the Board of Works are at liberty to regard the estimated surplus of 55,000 L. as forming part of the Parliamentary Grants for 1862-3, there will still remain to be surrendered to the Exchequer in respect of the unexpended balances on the 31st March 1862, the sum of 518,110 L. 18*s.* 8*d.*"

1. The statement is not accurate, that in the Appropriation Act, 1862, "the Grants of Parliament for the year 1862-3, in respect of this Service, are for the first time made to defray the charges which will come in course of payment during the year." By the Act, grants were made not for one Service, as implied by the words "this Service," but for 16 separate Services, quite unconnected with each other; each Grant being made "to defray the charge which will come in course of payment during the year ending 31st March, 1863, for (the particular Service). A list of these Services is annexed (No. 1.).

2. The statement is also inaccurate, that "in the Estimates submitted to Parliament for the year 1862-3, the amount of the probable surpluses on the Grants of former years have (as in the previous year) been deducted from the gross amount required for the service of the year, and the net amount only has been voted." It was only in respect of 4 of the 16 Services for which Grants were taken (List 1), that surpluses of former Grants were deducted, viz., "Royal Palaces," 10,000 L., "Public Buildings," 25,000 L., "Furniture for Public Offices," 5,000 L., and "Royal Parks and Pleasure Grounds," 15,000 L. Deductions on account of surpluses on the Grants of former years were not made from all the Estimates, or from one gross amount, as might be understood to be the case, from the language of the Commissioners.

3. In the statement "the anticipated surpluses are stated to be 55,000 L., but the actual surpluses as shown in the enclosed statement, were 573,110 L. 18*s.* 8*d.*," I believe that the Commissioners mean by the anticipated surpluses of 55,000 L., the sum of the surpluses of previous Grants on the four separate Services, "Royal Palaces," "Public Buildings," "Furniture for Public Offices," and "Royal Parks and Pleasure Grounds," these four surpluses amounting to that sum. But the "actual surpluses" of 573,110 L. 18*s.* 8*d.*, shown by the statement referred to by the Commissioners, are, on the 16 voted Services, including the four Services in question, and on 16 other Services, for which no Grants at all were taken for that year. A list of the last-mentioned 16 services is annexed (No. 2). There is therefore no room for a comparison of the surpluses on the four Votes anticipated by the Board as amounting together to 55,000 L., and the "actual surpluses," reported by the Commissioners as amounting to 573,110 L. 18*s.* 8*d.*

4. The sums above-mentioned, 10,000 L., 25,000 L., 5,000 L., and 15,000 L., which the Commissioners deal with as one sum of 55,000 L., were treated in the Estimates of 1862-3 as surpluses of former grants on account of the four services adverted to, from the circumstance that those sums would, as far as could be foreseen, remain in hand after all the works for which the grants for those services were made, should be executed and paid for. The word surplus in the Estimates was employed therefore in its ordinary and proper sense. But the Commissioners apply the word with a different meaning when they describe 573,110 L. 18*s.* 8*d.* as a surplus, or as composed of surpluses. That sum is merely the aggregate of the balances on the 31st March 1862, of Receipts and Payments shown by the accounts relating to all the voted services of the Board, in respect of nearly every one of which there were, at the time the balances were struck, accounts unsettled, and works still to be executed. In order to ascertain the surplus upon these services, it was necessary to deduct the amount of the unsettled accounts and the cost of works remaining to be executed. The Commissioners have stated the balances correctly, having simply copied them from the Board's accounts; but they have no grounds for treating these balances as surpluses, in the sense in which the word is used in the Estimates, inasmuch as they have not made the necessary deductions on account of outstanding accounts and works remaining to be executed.

5. In reporting to your Lordships that the unexpended balances on the 31st March 1862, are to be surrendered to the Exchequer, the Commissioners appear to rely upon what may be regarded as a narrow construction of the Appropriation Act of 1862. As far as concerns this Department, the Act provides that each Grant made in that Session shall be to defray the charge which will come in course of payment during the year ending on the 31st March 1863, in respect of the Service for which the Grant is made; and the Commissioners seem to conclude from this that the Board were prevented from resorting to the balances of prior Grants for such Service. Assuming that I have correctly described the ground taken by the Commissioners, it appears to me that they have inaccurately calculated the amount of the balances to be surrendered, according to their own construction of the Act. The Act provided Grants for 16 Services only (List No. 1), and was silent as to the remaining 16 voted Services under the control of the Board (List No. 2). To these latter Services the Act did not apply, and they remained to be dealt with by the Board as if the Act had not been passed. But the sum of 573,110 L. 18*s.* 8*d.* (or taken another way, 518,110 L. 18*s.* 8*d.*), 518,110*l.* 18*s.* 8*d.*), reported by the Commissioners as the amount to be surrendered, is the aggregate of the balances upon all the voted Services of the Department, including consequently the Services which are not mentioned in the Act. Apparently, therefore, the Commissioners have very considerably overstated the sum to be surrendered, even if they are right in the construction they put upon the Act.

The Board used in the year ending 31st March 1863, the balances of previous Votes agreeably to the practice of former years. It is within your Lordships' knowledge that the Estimates for 1862-63 were prepared without any anticipation on the part of the Board that they would be restricted from employing the balances of outstanding Grants as they had been accustomed to do. Prior to the passing of the Appropriation Act of last Session (7th August 1862), the Board had necessarily paid away a large amount of the balances of 31st March 1862. The expenditure is accurately shown in the accounts of the Department, which can be adjusted (if necessary) in any way your Lordships may consider expedient; but it is probable that no such adjustment will be required owing to the manner in which the balances of the voted accounts on 31st March last will be disposed of.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

I am, &c.
(signed) W. Cowper.

My Lords,

Audit Office, Somerset House, 6 August 1863.

WE have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your Lordships' Order of Reference, dated the 28th ultimo, on a letter from the Chief Commissioner of Public Works, dated the 2d ultimo, commenting on certain expressions in our Report upon the Accounts of the Board of Works for the year 1861-2. dated the 31st of January last, which expressions in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner are calculated to produce erroneous impressions.

The passage to which reference is more particularly made is the following :

"In the Appropriation Act 1862, the Grants of Parliament for the year 1862-3, in respect of this service, are for the first time made to defray the charges which will come in course of payment during the year. In the Estimates submitted to Parliament for the year 1862-3, the amount of the probable surpluses on the grants of former years have (as in the previous year) been deducted from the gross amount required for the service of the year, and the net amount only has been voted.

"The anticipated surpluses are stated at 55,000*l.*, but the actual surpluses, as shown in the enclosed statement, were 573,110*l.* 18*s.* 8*d.*

"If therefore the Board of Works are at liberty to regard the estimated surplus of 55,000*l.* as forming part of the Parliamentary grants for 1862-3, there will still remain to be surrendered to the Exchequer, in respect of the unexpended balances on the 31st March 1862, the sum of 518,110*l.* 18*s.* 8*d.*"

This statement is said to be inaccurate, 1st, in that it contains the expression "this Service;" whereas the grants of Parliaments for the year 1862-3 "were made not for one service as implied by the words 'this Service,' but for 16 separate Services quite unconnected with each other, each Grant being made to defray the charge which will come in course of payment during the year ending the 31st March 1863, for (the particular Service)."

The expression "this Service" was used by us to denote that branch of the Public Service which is placed under the direction of the Board of Works.

Although several separate Grants for separate Services are made to the War Office and Admiralty, it is not unusual to speak of these Grants as being made respectively for the Service of the Army and for the Service of the Navy.

The use by us of the term "Grants" in the sentence objected to, implies that there was more than one Grant, and therefore more than one Service. It is, moreover, to be observed that the general tenor of our Report, and the particulars set forth in the statement which accompanies it, shows that the Board of Works are charged with the administration of several separate Grants for several separate Services. We should add that the expression "the Service" or "this Service" is used in the same sense as that above adverted to, in the Reports which were submitted to Parliament on the Accounts of the Board of Works in 1853, 1855, 1858, 1861 and 1862.

The Chief Commissioner then observes (Paragraph 2):—

"The statement is also inaccurate that 'in the Estimates submitted to Parliament for the year 1862-3, the amount of the probable surpluses on the Grants of former years have (as in the previous year) been deducted from the gross amount required for the Service of the year, and the net amount only has been voted.' It was only in respect of four of the 16 Services for which Grants were taken (List 1) that surpluses of former Grants were deducted, viz., 'Royal Palaces,' 10,000 l., 'Public Buildings,' 25,000 l., 'Furniture for Public Offices,' 5,000 l. and 'Royal Parks and Pleasure Grounds,' 15,000 l. Deductions on account of surpluses on the Grants of former years were not made from all the Estimates, or from one gross amount, as might be understood to be the case from the language of the Commissioners."

In the sentence observed upon in this passage, our object was to inform Parliament what was the total amount to be surrendered to the Exchequer in respect of that portion of the total Grants for Public Works which was unexpended on the 31st March 1862. We submit that for this purpose, it was sufficient to point out the total amount of the surplus balances which the Board of Works proposed to use in aid of the Grants for 1862-3, viz., 55,000 l., and to deduct that amount from the gross total of unexpended balances, viz., 573,110 l. 18 s. 8 d. This process, it may be observed, with reference to the concluding sentence in paragraph 3 of the Chief Commissioner's letter, involves the necessity, not indeed of establishing a comparison between the two sums in question, but of placing them in juxta position. A reference to an instance in which a similar course was followed, will serve perhaps to make the case clear. At page 2 of the Public Works Estimates for 1862-3, there is a statement showing a comparison between the Estimates of 1862-3, and those of 1861-2. From this statement it appears that the total amount of the Estimates for 1862-3 is 695,215 l., and that the total amount for 1861-2 was 834,666 l. These totals are net sums, which have been arrived at by deducting certain surplus balances, which it was proposed in each year to use in aid of certain Votes, from the gross amount of the detailed Estimates for those Votes; and for the purpose of showing how these net sums were arrived at, a note has been appended to the last of the totals above specified, in which note the sum of 55,000 l. is treated in the same way as we have treated it in our Report, with a view of showing how we arrived at the net total amount of surplus balances, which would have to be surrendered to the Exchequer in respect of Votes for years anterior to 1862-3. The note referred to is as follows:

"This [the sum of 834,666 l.] was the sum voted [for 1861-2] after deducting from the totals of the detailed Estimates the surpluses of former Grants [without specifying what Grants] amounting to 128,000 l. The aggregate of the Estimates, irrespective of such deduction, was 962,666 l. The surpluses deducted this year amount to 55,000 l., and the detailed Estimates to 750,215 l."

With reference to the paragraph numbered 3 in the letter of the Chief Commissioner, we have only to refer to the observations we have made on paragraph 2, and to add that the propriety of treating as surplus balances to be surrendered to the Exchequer, those which are shown in the statement appended to our Report, as amounting to 573,110 l. 18 s. 8 d., or to that sum less 55,000 l., will be considered with reference to paragraphs 4 and 5.

The Chief Commissioner proceeds to observe (paragraph 4):

"The sums above mentioned, 10,000 l., 25,000 l., 5,000 l., and 15,000 l., which the Commissioners deal with as one sum of 55,000 l., were treated in the Estimates of 1862-3 as surpluses of former Grants on account of the four Services adverted to, from the circumstance that those sums would, as far as could be foreseen, remain in hand after all the works for which the Grants for those Services were made, should be executed and paid for. The word surplus in the Estimates was employed, therefore, in its ordinary and proper sense. But the Commissioners apply the word with a different meaning, when they describe 573,110 l. 18 s. 8 d. as a surplus or as composed of surpluses. That sum is merely the aggregate of the balances on the 31st March 1862, of Receipts and Payments shown by the Accounts relating to all the voted Services of the Board, in respect of nearly every one of which there were at the time when the balances were struck, accounts unsettled and works still to be executed. In order to ascertain the surplus upon these Services it was necessary to deduct the amount of the unsettled accounts and the cost of works remaining to be executed. The Commissioners have stated the balances correctly, having simply copied them from the Board's Accounts, but they have no grounds for treating these balances as surpluses in the sense in which the word is used in the Estimates, inasmuch as they have not made the necessary deductions on account of outstanding accounts and works remaining to be executed."

We apprehend that the practice founded on the interpretation which in this paragraph is given to the word "surplus" by the Chief Commissioner, is the very practice which Parliament propose to prevent by limiting the annual Grants for the public Service, to Services "coming in course of payment during the year." We apprehend, moreover, that by the use of these words, Parliament intended that all sums "coming in course of payment" during a given financial year, should be paid out of the money specially granted for that year, and out of no other money whatever; and further, that if any part of a Vote remaining unexpended on the 31st of March of a given year is required after that period for the completion of the Service to which the Vote related, the money cannot be legally used until it is re-voted.

Such is the interpretation which, for the last 30 years, has been given to the words in question, and has been adopted, not by this Board alone, but by the Admiralty, the War Office, the several Departments of Revenue and by your Lordships. It will be unnecessary that we should encumber this Report to your Lordships with evidence on this point; but, inasmuch as the recent change in the mode of voting money for the Civil Services may be considered as in a great measure owing to the influence of certain recommendations of the Select Committee of the House of Commons on Public Accounts, we may be permitted to call attention to the Report of that Committee, dated the 21st June 1861, as confirmatory of the foregoing observations.

The Committee, adverting to the remarks contained in that report, make the following statement in their report, dated the 8th May 1862:—

"The second report" (that is to say, the report of the 21st June 1861) "related to the Civil Service Votes under the superintendence of the Board of Works. It pointed out the objection entertained by the Committee to the form in which these votes were taken, and expressed their opinion, that so long as the votes were taken for the services of the year," and not "for services which will come in course of payment during the year;" "and so long as the system of allowing running balances to go from year to year was not stopped, no satisfactory comparison could be instituted between the votes and the expenditure under the votes."

The votes for this year have been taken "for services coming in course of payment during the year," and "the important defect animadverted upon in the report has been removed."

It only remains for us to observe on this part of the case, that, if the view taken by the Chief Commission is correct, it does not appear in what way the new mode of taking the votes affects the practice hitherto followed by the Board of Works.

The observations made by us on paragraph 4 of the Chief Commissioner's letter appear to us to apply also to paragraph 5. We would only add, that no money having been granted by the Appropriation Act of 1862, for the 16 services (List 2), we conceive that no money is legally available during 1862-63 for those services. We conceive, moreover, that the new mode of taking the votes, on account of the Board of Works for 1862-63, made it necessary to surrender to the Exchequer the balances outstanding on the votes for the services in question on the 31st March 1862, and to include in the Estimates for 1862-63 such sums as might have been required to meet the expenditure which those services were likely to occasion in that year.

The Committee on Public Accounts, in their report of the 21st June 1861, in recommending that the mode of taking the votes for the Board of Works should be assimilated to the mode of taking the votes for the Army, Navy, and Revenue Departments, observe:—

"On the 31st March the accounts of the year for these services are closed. The balances are declared by the Audit Board; any surplus that may remain is given up to the Exchequer, and is not available for payments made after the closing of the account. If any sum voted has not been paid, and is required, it must be re-voted."

In conclusion, we would express our regret that the opinion entertained by the Chief Commissioner, as to the erroneous impressions which certain expressions in our report of the 31st January last are calculated to produce, was not brought to our knowledge before the termination of the late Parliamentary Session.

TREASURY MINUTE, dated 2 February 1864, on the foregoing Report of the Commissioners of Audit, dated 30 January 1864.

REFER to First Commissioner of Works for any observations he may have to make on the Report.

LETTER from the First Commissioner of Works to the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

My Lords,

Office of Works, &c., S.W., 23 February 1864.

Your Lordships having referred to me the Report, dated the 30th ult., from the Commissioners for Auditing the Public Accounts, upon the Accounts of this Board, for the year ended 31st March 1863, for any observations which I might have to make upon it, I now beg leave to return it to your Lordships with the following remarks. For more easy reference I have taken the liberty of numbering the paragraphs of the Report.

Paragraphs 1, 2, 4, 5, 7.

The relevancy of the statements contained in these paragraphs to the Accounts, depends upon the time when the balances remaining on the Board's voted services at the end of the financial year, ceased to be available for those services, and were no longer to be carried forward to the next year's Accounts as theretofore. The remarks of the Commissioners proceed upon the supposition that the change took place on the 31st March 1862, whereas the Board consider that it did not take place till the 31st March 1863. I do not perceive from the Commissioners' Report that they suggest any grounds for their opinion, besides the Parliamentary Grants for 1862-63; but whether they rely upon the Grants being of specific sums, and consider that the Board were thereby precluded from using for those services the balances of former votes; or upon the Grants being made for the first time "to defray the charges which will come in the course of payment during the year (1862-63)," I am unable to determine. I do not suppose that the Commissioners rely much on the first point, it being a merely verbal inference not reconcilable with extrinsic circumstances; and with respect to the second point, it seems to me that the Commissioners can scarcely look upon the words "to defray the charges which will come in course of payment during the year," as having reference retrospectively to the balances on the 31st March 1862, the words being obviously intended to provide prospectively against the Board having recourse, after 31st March 1863, to the balances of the sums granted which should then remain unexpended. I have no occasion, however, at present to trouble your Lordships further with the construction which may be put upon the grants in question, the explanation which I have to give of the Accounts of 1862-63 having been continued in the usual form, and of the Board having during that year made partial use of the balances of former votes, resting upon the following circumstances.

The Parliamentary Estimates for the year 1862-63, were prepared by the Board in November and December 1861 and January 1862, and they were drawn up in the form previously in use, and on the supposition that the Board would be at liberty to make use in that year (1862-63), as theretofore, of the balances of former votes as far as might become necessary. The estimates thus prepared were, as usual, submitted to your Lordships for approval; and in considering them your Lordships, without altering their form, suggested in certain cases that portions of former votes should be surrendered to the Exchequer, leaving outstanding, however, in most instances a balance of such votes for the Board to make use of. The Estimates were laid before Parliament, and printed in the form in which they were prepared and approved of by your Lordships, with a statement at the head of each, showing the balance outstanding; but, afterwards in Committee of Supply, the Grants, instead of following the language of the Estimates, were altered to Grants "to defray the charges which will come in the course of payment during the year ending 31st March 1863," the sums granted, however, remaining the same as those in the Estimates, when originally prepared and approved of by your Lordships. If, by this alteration, it had been intended to prevent the Board from using the balances of votes of former years, a corresponding increase should have been made in the sums granted, in order to supply the place of those balances, and to provide what was necessary for the requirements of the Board in 1862-63, for several of the voted services. And I may add that the Board did not receive, either before or after the grants were made, any instructions or intimation from your Lordships, or otherwise, that they were not to use the outstanding balances in question.

The payments by the Board in 1862-63 on account of their different voted services were, according to the usual course, made direct from funds in the hands of the Paymaster General. These funds were supplied from time to time by issues from the Exchequer, from the balances remaining on 31st March 1862; and from the Grants for 1862-63. Issues from the Exchequer for the voted services of this Department, as your Lordships are aware, are not made at the instance of the Board, nor are they in any way regulated by them. The fact therefore of issues in 1862-63 from the balances of former years for the use of the Department, shows that the understanding extended to the other Departments concerned, that the Board were not restricted from using the balances of 31st March 1862, subsequently to that date. It is clear also that in October 1862, your Lordships did not regard the alteration in the language of the Grants of the previous Session as opposing any obstacle against the Board using the outstanding balances of 31st March 1862; for on the 3rd of October 1862 in the instructions to the Board respecting the preparation of the Parliamentary Estimates for 1863-4, your Lordships incidentally stated that "moneys provided in previous years, could be used for the services specified in the Estimates, whether the payments on account of them took place in the financial year, for which the Estimates were framed, or subsequently. The Votes of the past Session, however, limited the use of the moneys provided by them to the financial year expiring on 31st March 1863." I apprehend from all the above facts that it is abundantly evident that there was no intention on the part of Parliament, or the Government, that the change with respect to the balances on voted services at the end of the financial year, or consequently in the form of accounts used in this Department, should take place at the date assumed by the Commissioners, viz., 31st March 1862. The attention of the Board was not called to the possibility of such a construction until the Commissioners' Report upon their Accounts of 1861-62 was printed in May 1863, by order of the House of Commons.

I must not omit to mention, however, that the Select Committee of the House of Commons on Public Accounts in their First Report, dated 8th May 1862, say "the Votes for this year (1862-63) have been taken for services coming in course of payment during the year, and the important defect animadverted upon in the Report of 1861," (viz.: the previous form of the Civil Service Votes, and the practice of allowing balances of Votes to go on from year to year) "has been removed." This statement which is not quite free from ambiguity, may be read as implying that the balances of Votes of previous years had not been brought forward in the accounts of the then current year (1862-63); although, I apprehend, looking to the actual circumstances, that what the Committee meant was, that the Grants of 1862-63 were so framed as to prevent any balances upon them at the end of the financial year from being carried forward, which had been allowed by the Grants of previous years.

Paragraph 3.

With reference to the letter addressed by me to your Lordships upon the Commissioners' Report of the 31st January 1863 (Parliamentary Paper, No. 102, 1863), and to their Report of 6th August 1863 to your Lordships thereon, mentioned in this paragraph, I beg leave to state that in consequence of Mr. Peel's letter to me of 27th August last, transmitting a copy of the last mentioned Report with the suggestion that it did not appear to your Lordships to be necessary to pursue the subject any further, I have abstained from replying to that Report, and I shall on the present occasion confine myself to two remarks. First, I am still of opinion that it would have been better if the Commissioners' Report of 31st January 1863, had entered into particulars, and if its language had been more accurate; such a statement as "the anticipated surpluses are stated at 55,000*L.*, but the actual surpluses as shown by the enclosed statement were 573,110*L.* 18*s.* 8*d.*," susceptible of a meaning which the Commissioners have since disclaimed, would then have been avoided. The Commissioners explain that it was necessary for the object of the Report to place those sums in juxta position, and that it was not done for the purpose of establishing a comparison between them. I think, however, that this object might have been attained by a more particular statement and exact use of words. Secondly, the Commissioners say (Report 6th August 1863) "that no money having been granted by the Appropriation Act 1862, for the voted services in List 2," (at the end of my letter to your Lordships, 2d July 1863) "we conceive that no money is legally available during 1862-63 for these services. We conceive, moreover, that the new mode of taking the Votes on account of the Board of Works for 1862-63 made it necessary to surrender to the Exchequer the balances outstanding on the Votes for the services in question on the 31st March 1862, and to include in the Estimates 1862-63 such sums as might be required to meet the Expenditure which those services were likely to occasion in that year." The Commissioners in their Report of the 31st January 1863, by what I cannot help considering as a very forced construction, regard the Appropriation Act 1862 as retrospectively regulating the disposition of balances on the previous 31st March belonging to the services provided for in the Act; but I submit that by no possible construction can the Act be made to affect the balances of services not in anyway mentioned or referred to in it. And with regard to the new mode of taking the Votes adverted to by the Commissioners in their Report of 6th August 1863, but not in their Report of 31st January 1863, I beg leave to observe that the new mode referred to by them, was not made known to the Board as being acted on, till the form of their Estimates for 1862-63 was altered in Committee of Supply as before mentioned: and further, that the Board, up to the present time, have not received any instructions or information from your Lordships or otherwise to the effect that the new mode of taking Votes in 1862-63 obliged them to take fresh Grants in that year for services on account of which they had already sufficient funds provided by Parliament.

I again submit, therefore, that the aggregate balance of 573,110*L.* 18*s.* 8*d.*, or 518,110*L.* 18*s.* 8*d.* represented by the Commissioners in their Report of 31st January 1863, as the balance to be surrendered to the Exchequer on 31st March 1862, was erroneous by reason of its including services to which the Appropriation Act of 1862 did not apply, even supposing, which I do not allow was the case, that the Act had reference back to the balances

balances on 31st March 1862 on the voted services provided for by it. And the error is attributable, in my opinion, to the services in charge of the Board not having been kept sufficiently distinct in the preparation of the Commissioners' Report.

Paragraph 6.

In 1861-62 the sum of 47. 12 s. 11 d. was expended by the Board about certain works in Clarence House, and was charged at the time, correctly as was thought, to the Vote for Royal Palaces. Subsequently, however, the Board considered that the Vote was not chargeable with the expenditure, and they applied to the Lord Chamberlain to repay the amount, which he did in 1862-63. The Account of the Vote, which was then a running one, was credited with the repayment.

By a misunderstanding, bills were drawn upon the Board for the salary and expenses of a Botanical Collector for the Royal Gardens at Kew, travelling in Japan between June 1857 and April 1860, which were in excess of what was due to him by 111 l. 10 s. 10 d.; the Bills were paid by the Board and charged to the Vote of Royal Parks and Pleasure Gardens. In 1862-63 the amount was received back by the Board and credited to the then running Account of the Vote.

In 1861-62 an order for payment of 18 s. was issued by the Board and charged to the Vote for the Houses of Parliament. The person to whom it was issued, neglected to present it for payment, and the order being cancelled in 1862-63, the amount was credited to the then running Account of the Vote.

The same circumstances occurred with respect to an order for payment of 3 l. 8 s. 1 d. on account of the temporary Foreign Office.

In none of these cases was any sum extraneous to the Vote brought to its aid; and I submit that the correctness of the course taken by the Board depends upon the question already discussed of the time when the Accounts of the Board were to be changed from running Accounts to independent Annual Accounts. The Commissioners assume that this change took place on 31st March 1862, and the Board submit that it was not till 31st March 1863. If the views of the Commissioners are right, I admit that the above mentioned sums should have been dealt with as extra Receipts; but if those of the Board are right, then the sums were properly credited in the Accounts of the respective Votes.

The sum of 409 l. 1 s. 10 d. was inadvertently credited to the Vote of the British Embassy House, Paris; more correctly it should have been made the subject of a separate Account. From the nature of the property and the circumstances attending the disposal of it, the Board submit that the amount was properly applicable to the expenditure on the Embassy House, and that it was not required to pay it into the Exchequer.

Paragraphs 8, 9, 10.

In the query transmitted by the Commissioners to the Board, they stated that it appeared that the 150 feet of old pipes "were received from Kensington Gardens (Vote, Royal Parks and Gardens)," the answer of the Board was that "the pipes were bought before that Vote came into use and whilst the Parks were maintained by the Land Revenue," meaning the Land Revenue Department. The Board do not know out of what fund the pipes were bought. They have been in their possession a great many years.

The Board submit that there is no regulation in force which required them to put a value on the old pipes and pay the amount into the Exchequer at the time, as they understand the Commissioners to mean, when the old pipes were used. Their value, as well as the saving made by the Board through using them, entered into the balance on the Vote for Public Buildings on 31st March 1863 to be surrendered.

Paragraphs 11, 12.

The items connected with the "Courts of Law Concentration" and "Site of Burlington House," reported by the Commissioners, were transferred to the Vote for Public Buildings, agreeably to the instructions contained in your Lordships' letters to the Board of 6th and 30th March 1863 respectively.

The subjects of the remaining paragraphs of the Commissioners' Report do not seem to me to require any observations from the Board.

I am, &c.
(signed) W. Cowper.

TREASURY MINUTE on the above, dated 15 March 1864.

WRITE to the First Commissioner of Works with reference to his Report, that My Lords consider that the Commissioners of Audit, having regard only to the technical interpretation of the Appropriation Act, were correct in raising the question regarding the appropriation of the balances of former Grants to the service of the year 1862-3.

My Lords are, however, of opinion, that as the Estimates of the Board of Works presented to Parliament for that year were framed on the principle of appropriating to the service of the year the balances remaining on account of former Grants, and the sums voted represent only the estimated Expenditure framed on that principle, it was the intention of Parliament that the new arrangement for the surrender to the Exchequer of balances remaining at the close of the financial year should take effect from the 31st March 1863.

Acting on this view, my Lords have authorised the Comptroller General of the Exchequer to withdraw from the available balances in the Exchequer at the credit of the several Votes specified in the column marked (A.) in the accompanying Return (of which transmit copy to the First Commissioner) the several sums stated against each, amounting in the aggregate to the sum of 163,429*l.* 10*s.* 11*d.*; and my Lords request that the necessary authority may be sent to the Paymaster General for the repayment to the Exchequer of the several sums stated in column (B.) of the same return, amounting together to the sum of 4698*l.* 7*s.* 8*d.* These two sums added to the sum of 24,750 l., already surrendered, make up the total surplus on the several Votes enumerated at p. 21 of the audited Account of the Receipt and Expenditure of the Votes in the Department of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings for the year ending the 31st March 1863.

With respect to the deficiency of 62*l.* 19*s.* 2*d.* on the Vote for Windsor Improvements, caused by the premature surrender of the balance of that Vote (300*l.*) on the 31st March last, state that my Lords have directed the necessary provision to be made for the same in the Estimate for Royal Palaces for the ensuing financial year.

Give the necessary directions to the Comptroller General of the Exchequer with respect to the first-mentioned sums.

Inform Paymaster General.

Transmit copy of the Report of the First Commissioner of Works to the Commissioners of Audit, and acquaint them with the directions given.
